Message from the President

Hello to all Fallbrook Quilt Guild members and welcome to our 2022-2023 season. I am looking forward to a fun year of getting together with friends and sharing our projects and experiences in quilting.

As many of you may have noticed we will be having a change in meeting times this year. Still meeting the first Thursday of the month and the same location, the Fallbrook Community Center but the time has changed. After reviewing the surveys from last spring that indicated a strong desire to have evening meetings also, to accommodate any quilters working outside the home or unavailable during the afternoon, the board has come up with a plan that we feel will meet some of the issues on both sides.

We plan on meeting evenings in spring and summer (April, May, June, August, and September) when it is light later in the day. Then meeting afternoons in fall and winter (October, November, December, February, and March) when the sun sets earlier. This allows for an even split of the year of five meetings each time slot.

Cindy Stephen has sent out a nice compact schedule that is great to print out and attach to your calendar or keep with your quilt guild name tag.

Please remember to pay your guild dues for this year and bring your Show-and-Tell items to share. I look forward to seeing everyone who can attend our first evening meeting of 2022-2023.

Doors will open at 5:30PM and the meeting will start at 6:00PM, Thursday, August 4, 2022.

Enjoy your craft and appreciate your talent!

Fabric Baskets and Fun with Friends

My family has just wrapped up a fabulous wedding week with lots of good food, dancing and party favors. If only I had known how to make fabric baskets, I could have made a coordinated set for the kids' craft table and the succulent give away table. Next time, I'll be prepared as on Thursday night, Jewell Burke will show us all how to make fabric baskets. These make great gifts and sewing room storage. There will be construction demos, usage suggestions and also some "Fun with Friends" games to round out the evening. Looking forward to seeing you all there.

Guidelines

Hospice Quilts: Fabric that is not of baby quilt type, may be perfect for those given to Elizabeth Hospice. The size may need to be a bit bigger, about 42” x 50”, and recipients may be male or female. We have kits made up, or feel free to turn to your own stash and tap into those creative juices. The folks at Elizabeth Hospice have warmly welcomed all that Dixie has dropped off.

Baby Quilts: You may use your own fabric, or pick up a kit. Most of these quilts are about 36” x 42”. The base hospital is now maintaining a bin with quilts in it in the peds unit, hoping to tap into those new babies when they come for their three-day checkup. In fact, Dixie’s military neighbor just showed a picture of it. She looked in and sure enough, our quilts were there.

String Quilt: Thanks to all who turned in their string block. The cheery, colorful blocks have been assembled into the one pictured here and will have the calmer fabric as shown in the corner for the back. If there are blocks still out there, kindly turn them in by October. Also, remember to shorten your stitch length to help the member who gets to remove the paper.

Many thanks for Deb Raver to putting the blocks together and Betty Hall for meticulously picking out the paper.

Lastly: Members continue to go above and beyond in the quality and attractiveness of the quilts turned in. Opening the box on Dixie's porch and seeing the latest quilts dropped off continue to warm her heart. It is obvious that you do not treat them as "just" charity quilts, but more like something you'd give a member of your family. 24 quilts were dropped off on July 27 and were warmly received by two ladies from the Navy/Marine Welfare Organization. Kits will be available for pick up or drop off at guild meetings or on Dixie's porch:
