PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello to one and all,

Our Quilt Show was amazing this year. Thank you to everyone who entered a quilt and volunteered on a show committee. You all did a great job and the show was a terrific success.

I'd like to wish all of you lovely ladies a beautiful and warm Holiday season as we move into December.

I'm looking forward to a wonderful Quilt guild potluck this month. I hope to see you all there. It's always so nice to share a special holiday mealtime together. Dixie Johns will be presenting the quilts for Christmas fabric challenge. It will be interesting to see all the different ideas you've had. Also, please bring Show & Tell.

I'd like to encourage you to sign up to white glove at Road to California in January. This great quilt show is just around the corner. White-glove volunteers receive free admission to the show. Please contact Mara Woods if you'd like to volunteer.

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and joyous quilting!

Very best regards,

Sylvia Williams

HOSPITALITY NEWS

Here is what we'd like our members to bring for December's Christmas Potluck

A-G is asked to bring Salad of some sort.

H-M is asked to bring a Dessert.

N-Z is asked to bring a Main Dish.

These are just suggestions, if you have a favorite holiday treat, please feel free to bring it instead of the suggested items.

Thank you,
The Hospitality Committee

Quilt Show News

Thanks to everyone who helped with our quilt show this year! The quilts were all gorgeous (and the comments from people reflected that!) and everyone enjoyed the Auction and the Country Store, as always!

We'll provide you with more information at the next couple of meetings, including the winners of the Viewer's Choice Awards.

Thanks again!

Sandy Scott

December Fabric Challenge

It is with much enthusiasm that I approach our December meeting to see what so many of you have done with your pine tree fabric for the challenge. Those that have shared your project at guild meetings are a credit to your creativity in embracing this challenge.

Bring your project a bit early or drop it off with me so that there will be a good display area off the entries. If you are not going to enter, and I know that life happens, just let me know so that I may adjust plans. Lastly, if your project is big like Barbara or Nora's, let me know so that I can plan accordingly.

January Program, Jan 9 — Tips and Tricks and Silk Fabric Challenge

We will call upon our own experts to share their tips of the trade. You won't want to miss this meeting where you'll learn LOTS!

1. Deb Raver an easier way to assemble blocks.
2. Connie Follstad- hands on demonstration of 40 ways to fold a fat quarter. (Ok, 40 is an exaggeration.)_
3. Quilter's Cottage – something new from them
4. To be determined-could use your input- possibly: speed cutting, binding attaching, fabric gift bags- simple and complex, and ???

Workshop Jan 11 Quilts of Love

Thanks for all of you who have contributed the 7 ½" X 2-3" rectangles. It's been fun to create layouts with them.

At the December meeting, drop by the program sign up table and choose how you want to assist: piecing the rectangles, adding the sashing, sandwiching the quilts, sewing the sandwich, pressing, or putting the ties on the quilts.

I'd love to knock out 20 baby quilts that day for those little USMC, and USN dependent babies.

Executive Board Minutes — November 15, 2019

Sylvia Williams called the meeting to order.

Attending were Sylvia Williams, Dixie Johns, Karen Johnston, Ann Turley, Mara Woods, and Jo Anne Russell.

A discussion about the recent quilt show started our meeting.

Sylvia Williams gave a treasurer's report, since Barbra Vajda was unable to attend. All of the figures have not come in so this was just a preliminary report for the quilt show. A deposit was made of $17,409 after the show concluded. Exact figures will come after the bills are paid and each committee completes their record keeping.

Sylvia Williams reported that 402 opportunity tickets were sold for a total of $367. This total does not add into the quilt show funds.

Ann Turley listed the programs she has lined up for 2020-2021 year. She almost has the schedule completed. She has a variety of teachers and classes for the new calendar.

Dixie Johns will send out a reminder about the quilt challenge for the December meeting. She also informed us of her plans for the January meeting. Don't forget to keep saving your fabric pieces for the Quilts of Love project.

Dianne Parker was unable to attend, but is still working to have our guild in compliance for our raffle permit

The meeting concluded with a brief discussion about our December potluck.

Meeting was adjourned.
