Quilters Anonymous

Greetings, Quilting Friends,

Happy holidays to you all, whatever you celebrate. I hope you'll join us at the holiday party on December 2 as it's sure to be a fun afternoon. As I write this before Thanksgiving, I'm thankful for all the guild board members, committee members, and volunteers at our meetings. Please remember that being on the board of the Fallbrook Quilt Guild is a volunteer position. Some of us have had little or no training and as a newish guild member, I personally don't have historical knowledge of how the Guild has been run in the past. The board is doing its best and fulfilling what is required of us. Our board works hard to create a fun and safe place for our diverse group to gather together to share and grow our quilting skills.

We, the board, are so grateful to those of you who have encouraged us and thanked us for our programming. We understand that it is impossible to please everyone, and we like hearing your opinions and suggestions, but not necessarily during the meetings when so much is going on. Consider writing requests and suggestions in an email. Another way to have a say in programming and the way the Guild is run is volunteering to help out on a committee or even be on the board. We'll be looking for new board members at the end of the guild year. Have you volunteered your time yet?

With best regards,

Frannie Marr

FQG President

From the Programs Team

Wow, this year has flown by, and a new one is just around the corner. I want to thank all of you for making the November mini quilt show a success. This would not have been possible without the participation of all of you! We hope to make this a regular event, held in the off-quilt-show years. If you have any comments, questions, or suggestions, please let me know by dropping me an email at ann@annturley.info. All comments are always welcome.

By now I hope you have read the notice regarding the December meeting that we sent to you a few weeks ago. We aren't doing the potluck but instead will be serving cookies, doing show and tell, and holding a gift exchange with a twist. Please bring a small gift in a small sealed brown paper bag. Nothing fancy, nothing expensive, just a small gift that is something you yourself would like to receive. Oh, and please wear something festive. A holiday sweater, a lovely scarf or piece of jewelry, something fun for your head. You get the picture, I'm sure! There will be a few extra bagged gifts for those who decide to join in at the last moment.

In addition to our festivities, Wendy Mathson is joining us to promote her February workshop. After hearing her describe the workshop, I hope you will seriously consider signing on for it.

That's it for now. See you all December 2. The doors open at 1p.m., the fun starts at 1:30.

Ann

Hi, Quilting Friends,

I am serving as FQG Sunshine Chair this year.
To be most effective, I need your help.

Here's how: Frequently a member or someone in her immediate family has a reason to be contacted, usually health-related. I am available to make a call, visit, or send a card if you will let me know the details.

I prefer an email over phone or text, but please use the easiest means for you.

Thanks so much,

Ann Harris

News from the Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds

SCCQG & Road2CA

Road to California
Quilters' Conference
& Showcase 2022

Special Exhibit by
SCCQG featuring "So
Cal Quilts"

Again, the organizers from ROAD have invited SCCQG to sponsor an exhibit displaying the works of quilters from the Southern California area for exhibition at ROAD, January 19–22, 2022. It's our time to shine. The details of how to enter will be posted on the SCCQG website and will be emailed to each guild via their Council Representative, Newsletter Editor, and President for distribution.

Please join us in presenting a representative exhibit of what Southern California quilters from the desert to the mountains to the sea have been creating (or finishing). All types of quilts will be welcomed so long as they fit the size requirement. I am hoping to get at least one quilt from each of the member guilds. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me via email at liv4quilts@aol.com

In addition to submitting quilts, I will also be calling on So Cal quilt guild members to help with the whole process, including hanging (before the show begins) and take-down (when the show ends). If you are willing and able to help with any of it, please let me know at your earliest convenience at liv4quilts@aol.com
