Message from the President

Hello fellow quilters

We are at the start of the busy holiday season. Hope you all had a nice Thanksgiving and didn't over eat, too much. 😊

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Sandy and all of the chairs for the Quilt Show for such a great job at their organizing of this event. And also I want to thank everyone for their hard work in volunteering their time to make this show a success. And let's not forget all of the husbands, sons, daughters, other family, and friends that came out to help. We wouldn't have pulled this all together without everyone working together! THANK YOU SO MUCH!!

Our December meeting is shaping up to be a very festive and fun evening, Please see Ann's article for the specific details you should be aware of. A reminder that this meeting will be in the evening since our entertainers are students and in school during the day.

There will not be a board meeting in December, The next board meeting will be January 10, 2024 at the Regional Health Center on East Mission Road.

Our December meeting is Thursday the 7th. The doors will open at 5:30pm and the meeting will start at 6:00pm. This is our winter potluck. Please bring a food item to share and your appetite. The beverages and plates and utensils will be provided. Also something to show and tell. Hope to see all of you there.

Also please remember we will be dark in January so everyone can rest up after such a busy November and December.

Enjoy your craft and appreciate your talent!

MESSAGE FROM THE 1ST VP

My, how time flies when you're a part of the Fallbrook Quilt Guild! The December program will be fun and festive, starting with a production from N'Voices, a local performing group. There will be eighteen children singing and dancing while we enjoy our Holiday Potluck.

Afterwards we are going to play a game and do a novelty sock exchange! Please bring a new pair of novelty socks like Christmas socks, funny socks or any holiday socks. "every day" socks. This time amazing selection of socks! your socks and tie them bias strip or ?? The "little a few Hersey's kisses and sewing supplies and lip balm. imagination run wild.

like Christmas socks, funny socks or of year, Dollar Tree has an Now insert a little something into together with ribbon, string, raffia, something" can be anything from peanut butter cups to a magnet, The sky is the limit so let your

Many have asked if I'm planning another challenge, and the answer is YES! It will run from February to June and will involve a different way of doing things. Details will follow in our next newsletter.

I hope you all had a joyful Thanksgiving.

Quilt Show News

A huge thanks goes out to all the committee chairs, co-chairs, and helpers for the quilt show. It was a great success, largely thanks to your efforts.

For those who have not had a follow-up meeting with me, I will be scheduling those meetings in the couple of weeks after Thanksgiving. Please be prepared with your written comments about what worked with your committee, what didn't work, and the suggestions you have for the next show. Also, when you come to meet with me, be sure to bring your notebook and any committee boxes you might have been given.

Since I won't be at the December meeting due to a prior commitment, I have asked Sharon Boehm to present the Viewer's Choice Awards from the quilt show. Third place winner is Dixie Johns, who displayed Marguerite's Water Color quilt. Second place winner is Becky Forbes for her Tropical Delight quilt. And first place winner is Mary Morrison for her World Tour quilt. Winners, please bring your quilts to the meeting so they can be shown to members. The names of the winner will also be found on our website under Events → Quilt Shows.

Thanks again and hope you will be ready for the show in two years!
