

Fallbrook Quilt Guild Newsletter July 2018

July 2018 President's Message

I am really excited to serve as your president this year and look forward to a year filled with friendship, good times and our enjoyment of being together as we share our love of quilting.

I'd like to thank everyone who has volunteered to work on the board, and on our guild committees for the upcoming new guild year. We have a great year planned and hope that you all enjoy what's in store for the guild membership with the speakers & programs/workshops, Quilts of Love and a terrific "surprise" Block of the Month brought to us by our very own Ann Turley. Collette Ford has put together a fun calendar and I urge you all to look at the upcoming classes.

The new opportunity quilt "Romancing the Red" was revealed at the June meeting and it is just stunning. Thank you to Dixie Johns and Barbara Vajda, and to everyone who participated in creating this beautiful quilt.

Our next meeting is going to be on July 12, 2018. I wish you all a joyous, firework filled 4th of July.

Happy Quilting,

Sylvia Williams, FGQ President

Meetings and Workshops for 2018/2019

For our meeting on July 12, your fellow guild members will share their expertise in a round-robin format.

There is not a workshop in July.

Our speakers for August – September are listed below with a description of their lectures and workshops. Please note the changes in dates for July and September!!!

July 12 (Please note date change)

Member University

Back by popular demand. Please join us as your fellow guild members share their tips and tricks with you. Presenters will have 15 minutes to share their expertise with you in a round-robin format. You will be able to see multiple presentations.

August 2

Mel Beach presents “Challenge Yourself”

Discover the world of Quilt Challenges and the many opportunities awaiting you (and your quilts!) Join Mel as she recounts her adventures (including a few misadventures) while participating in Quilt Challenges at both the local and national/international level. She hopes to inspire you by sharing her own quilts and their stories; along with tips/tricks that she hopes will inspire and encourage you to enter your own quilts, regardless of style or level of experience/skill! Presentation includes a slide show followed by trunk show including 25+ of her challenge quilts.

August 4

Mel Beach Workshop: “Intriguing Interleaves”

Unlock the fun and intrigue of Lorrie Cranor's Interleave quilts. All the secrets of creating the illusion of curves and transparency using only straight line stitching will be revealed. Best of all, Interleave quilts are assembled using a quilts-you-go technique, so your unique Interleave quilt will be pieced and quilted at the same time!

Intriguing Interleaves Supply List

September 13 (Please note date change)

Nancy Ota presents “Her Long Quilting Journey”

A trunk show that takes you through her long quilting journey of many styles. She can't seem to stay with one; she wants to do it all. She will bring about 30 quilts, bags and garments. Her quilts and garments have been in many international shows in the US and even Japan.

September 14 (Please note date change; this is on Friday and will start at 10am)

Nancy Ota Workshop: Sashiko

Sashiko is Nancy's most popular workshop. This is a hand embroidery technique that can be used in quilts and garments. No sewing machine is necessary! Kit fee is $5.00 or $20.00 for Two Fans pattern and materials (pictured.)

MEMBERSHIP REPORT
JUNE 7, 2018

Here we are at the end of another wonderful year with the Fallbrook Quilt Guild. Your Membership Committee would like to thank you all for being so kind to us at the 'front table' during chaotic times and easy times. It has been a pleasure to say 'Hello' to each and every one of you, as you walk in ---and sign in, at every meeting this year.

As we prepare to turn over the Membership duties to Mara Woods and Karen Johnston, we would like to remind you that we are encouraging you to renew your membership with us before July 31st. For every Renewal taken in before that date, you will be entered into a drawing for a free workshop. And on the 'downside'...if you fail to renew before July 31st, you will not be included in the 2018 - 2019 Guild Directory☐!

For accurate records, we need to have each member fill out a Renewal form. If there are no changes, you may just write in the address line, "No Changes"! We appreciate your patience.

SECOND NOTE.....JULY MYSTERY QUILT

This month it's all about the cut.

LIGHT: For yardage, you will cut twelve 2 ½" strips and six 4 ½" strips. Are you going scrappy? Cut 180—2 ½" squares and 96—2 ½" x 4 ½" rectangles. Place each set into a separate labeled zip bag.

Dark#1: Yardage, cut fourteen 2 ½" strips. Scrappy, 213—2 ½" squares. Bag and label.

Dark#2: Yardage, cut five 4 ½" strips. Cut 72—2 ½" x 4 ½" rectangles. Scrappy, cut 72—2 ½" x 4 ½" rectangles. For both yardage and scrappy, pair the rectangles into 36 matched pairs. Bag and label.

Tone-on-Tone: (coordinates with dark #1 and dark #2): Yardage, three 4 ½" x 2 ½" strips. Scrappy, 36—4 ½" x 2 ½" rectangles. (Both yardage and scrappy, the rectangles are matched in sets of four.)

That's all until August, when we will begin to sew.

FIRST NOTE ...JUNE.. MYSTERY QUILT TO REPLACE BLOCK OF THE MONTH

Have you ever made a mystery quilt? It can be a bit scary not knowing the final outcome, but the fun involved should far outweigh the fear! In a nutshell, each month you will receive a new set of instructions via the newsletter, the website and/or at the meeting. All you need to do is complete the monthly assignments, and by June 2019, you will have completed a beautiful lap quilt! In order to begin next month, you will need to collect some fabrics for this lap quilt:

If you want everything to coordinate:

LIGHT: 1 ½ yd.

DARK #1: 1 yd.

DARK #2: 5/8 to ¾ yd.

STONE-ON-TONE: 3/8 to ½ yd.

BORDERS: 1 ½ YD.

If you want to use scraps, then use nothing smaller than 2 ½" x 2 ½" in amounts listed above. NOTE- there will be pieces cut larger than this, to be revealed next month.

I will be available at the meetings to answer all your questions.

In JULY, we will begin to cut.

This will be fun!

Ann

FALLBROOK QUILT GUILD MINUTES OF 7 JUNE 2018 GENERAL MEETING

The meeting was called to order at 6:10 pm by Barb Vajda, President. Barb welcomed members and guests to tonight's pot luck dinner/meeting and led the Pledge of Allegiance. She thanked everyone for bringing such a fantastic looking feast and that we'd get to it as quickly as possible. The next Board meeting is scheduled for Friday, 15 June from 10-12 at the Quilter's Cottage. She was sad to realize that this would be her last Board meeting and thanked everyone who served with her during the 2017/2018 year and the members for making her feel so warmly welcome. There was a lot of fun and a successful year due to everyone's self-less contributions to do what needed to be done.

The drawing for the winner of the Midnight Garden Opportunity Quilt would be drawn tonight and the 2018/2019 Opportunity Quilt revealed. Tonight began the start of membership renewals/signups. Turn yours in during June and July and your name will be put in for a chance to win a “free workshop of your choice”. Also, be sure to renew/join by August's meeting so you can be in the Directory.

Barb informed those that were changing positions or beginning new ones, to be sure they exchanged the tools of that trade prior to the 12 July Guild meeting – there is NO meeting on 5 July. Committee Chairs were informed that if they believed an increase to their budget was required, to provide the information to Betsy Shirkey (Treasurer) so she could see if it is feasible to incorporate the increase into the 2018/19 and 2019/20 budgets.

Barb announced it was time to eat and that we'd continue with the business portion of the evening when we were finished.

Installation of Officers: The 2018-2019 Board of Directors approved in May were installed along with the voluntary Committee Chairs.

Newsletter Deadline: The deadline for items to go in the guild newsletter is June 15th. Items should be sent to newsletter editor, Diane Trappen at QuiltDLT@aol.com. She has agreed to stay on another year.

Treasurer's Report: Betsy Shirkey reported that May's income was $417, expenses were $1,401.82 and we have a bank balance of $31,189.44.

Membership Report: Judy Ortega reported we had 48 members, 1 guest and 1 new member (Beverly Bilby) in attendance tonight.

Block of the Month: Ann Turley spoke about the Block of the Month which is going to be a mystery quilt. If you are participating, look at the newsletter each month to see what fabrics/sizes, etc. you need to bring in order to do each step of the process. By the end of the Guild year, you will have a complete quilt top. If you don't know what to bring for July's meeting, check the June newsletter, gather your materials and bring them to the July meeting to learn where to go from there.

Laura Small informed us that she was meeting with some crafters/knitters, etc. at the Starbucks in Fallbrook on Saturday, 9 June. If you get a chance to stop by, come in and buy coffee, then take a look at some of the fantastic things artists are doing with materials other than just fabric.

Programs: Collette Ford provided a brief itinerary of speakers lined up for the coming year. July will be a “University” meeting with our own members teaching various things they like to do and we will get to see each station for a little bit to be able to get to all the stations.

Ways & Means: The person who sold the most tickets was Carol Carpenter. As the Design & Construct Committee Chair, she drew the winning ticket for the Midnight Garden Opportunity Quilt. It was one of our own members - Jane Carpenter. She was notified by Sylvia Williams as several members came up for Show and Tell.

Show and Tell. Check the Fallbrook Quilt Guild's website to see pictures of items shown and by whom.

Drawings: Cup & A Quarter winners were Nancy Hill, Andrea Hard, Linda Musellami and Betsy Shirkey. Birthday drawing winners were Sue Burns, Karen Johnston, Jewell Burke, Kathy Carr, Laura Small and Ardis Duhacheck. Forgive me if I missed anyone. There was no door prize tonight.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:40 pm.

Respectfully submitted by: Barbara Vajda (President) / Interim Secretary on 15 June 2018

FALLBROOK QUILT GUILD BOARD MEETING MINUTES OF 15 JUNE 2018

President's Report: The meeting was called to order at 10:10 by Barb Vajda at the Quilter's Cottage. Barb stated she picked up the mail before the meeting which consisted of 3 membership renewals. She thanked all the Board members present for having her as our President for the past year. She had prepared the letter for signatures on the FQG bank account for Sylvia and presented it to her for the additions/deletions of names to the account. Barb informed her she would have to make arrangements with the new signers to go to Chase Bank to make the changes. She informed Sylvia that she would need to decide when the Board meeting would occur along with where/what time. Barb and Sylvia are going to the Community Center after the meeting today to sign the contract for the coming year's Guild meetings. Barb then read a letter received from Quilt In A Day that basically stated they were offering Guilds to come to their store, (day starts at 10:00) and sit in on a taping of Eleanor Burns, have lunch with her and shop with some pretty good sale promotions. They offer this for $25 per person and we'd need to call to make reservations – no dates were listed as they are taking reservations from all Guilds. This will probably be brought up at the July Guild meeting to see if anyone is interested in attending. Reminded that our newsletter articles are due to Diane today....hope we can make it on time.

Newsletter Deadline: The deadline for items to go in the guild newsletter is June 15th. Items should be sent to our newsletter editor, Diane Trappen at QuiltDLT@aol.com. Diane has agreed to stay on another year.

Treasurer's Report: Betsy Shirkey reported that May's income was $796, expenses were $36.69 and we have a bank balance of $31,948.72. Betsy stated that she, Jan Conklin and Sylvia Williams will be meeting to create the budgets for 2018-19 and 2019/20.

Membership Report: Judy Ortega reported we had 48 members, 1 guest and 1 new member (Beverly Bilby) in attendance tonight.

Ways & Means: Sylvia Williams reported that Jane Carpenter (the person who won the "Midnight Garden" Opportunity Quilt was thrilled and excited.

Programs: Collette Ford reported that she has the term all scheduled. She provided a brief itinerary of speakers lined up for the coming year: July will be a "University" meeting with our own members teaching various things they like to do and we will get to see each station for a little bit to be able to get to all the stations. November's speaker is doing "Rulers In Quilting"; February 7-9 will be Marty Michelle and our own Judy Ortega will be teaching us ways to help relieve muscle aches/spasms, etc., while cutting, sewing and quilting - just to name a few.

Other: The Hospitality sign-up sheet was missing at the end of the 7 June Guild meeting. The following members from today's meeting volunteered to provide refreshments for the 12 July meeting: Diane Parker, Barbara Vajda, Sylvia Williams, Tina Rainey and Judy Ortega.

If anyone else would like to bring something, please do so – the more, the merrier. There will be a sign-up sheet at the July meeting for the remaining Guild meetings of the 2018-2019 year.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:10

Respectfully submitted by: Barbara Vajda (President) / Interim Secretary on 15 June 2018
