July 2019

President's Message

I am really excited to serve as your president again this year and look forward to a year filled with friendship, good times and our enjoyment of being together as we share our love of quilting.

I'd like to thank everyone who has volunteered to work on the board, and on our guild committees for the upcoming new guild year. We have a great year planned and hope that you all enjoy what's in store for the guild membership with the speakers and programs/workshops, Quilts of Love. Dixie Johns has put together a great year that I am sure you will all enjoy!

The new opportunity quilt "Super Blooms" was revealed at the June meeting and it is just stunning. Thank you to Barb Anderson and her terrific team who participated in creating this beautiful quilt. It is really a lovely quilt and will be a big success for us. Our next meeting is going to be on July 11, 2019. Please bring your quilts and projects to share with, it's really my favorite part of our meeting. It's amazing to see the creativity and talent of our guild members.

Until then, I wish you all a joyous, firework filled 4th of July.

Happy Quilting,

Sylvia Williams, FGQ President

Programs and Workshops

Ok, we are rolling out our new programs and presentations. Here's what's coming up during the summer. xo, Dixie

July 11, 13 Lyn Brown (lynbrown.com) She comes to us from Orange County and is a long time quilting instructor via the community college, Craftsy, as well as guilds. At our meeting, Lyn will share her presentation called:

Paradise Precuts. Her workshop is a lovely star project called Floating Stars. She advertises them as follows:

Precut Paradise- presentation Love those precut packs? Not sure how to use them? Through material examples, Lyn shares many tips, tricks, and techniques for using those jelly rolls, charm packs, layer cakes and fat quarters.

Floating Stars- workshop This quilt is made up of mostly 5 1/2' squares, but fat quarters or scraps would work out great too!

August 1, 3 Lyn Mann (quiltsbylyn.com) Sylvia and I did a bit of recon at the El Camino Guild when Lyn came to them in April. This speaker was delightful and full of information as well as beautiful quilts. She must be a bit camera shy because I could find no photo of her. (She came to us in November of 2016 and presented Confessions of a Skewed up Quilter. Ring a bell?) This time, Lyn's lecture will be the same that we saw at El Camino, so we know this will be really good.

Head for the Border –presentation. Lyn shows a variety of borders, way beyond my standard 2" followed by a 4"border. She had a ton of items in her trunk show and presented in a way that elicited chuckles along with ooh and ahhs throughout her presentation.

Head for the Border-workshop Finally, a class that will help you get started planning a pieced border for your quilt. Most of the time spent will be working with the quilts that students bring in and together you will brainstorm the perfect border for it. Simple directions of where to start and what to look for will be covered. There will be multiple handouts listing the basics as well as giving some important formulas and piecing instructions. This will strictly be a design class and there will be no sewing involved.

So dig out that UFO quilt top that just needs that special border, and let Lyn to lead you to the next step of making the quilt spectacular

Ways & Means – Opportunity Tickets — Jan Conklin

Congratulations to Carol Carpenter for winning the FY2019-2020 Opportunity Quilt in June. At July's meeting we will announce the Guild member who sold the most tickets. Who will win this year?

It's another year and another beautiful Opportunity Quilt, "Super Blooms". I hope you're as excited as I am with this beautiful hand-quilted and hand appliqued quilt. It just makes me smile.

At July's Guild meeting we will begin collecting for the Opportunity Tickets. Remember, it's 30 tickets for $25 payable when you pick up the tickets. So be sure to bring an extra check, or cash so you can be in the drawing to win it! We look forward to seeing you in July to get another close-up look at this colorful quilt that will be a fantastic addition to any wall or bed.

The Guild depends on sales from the Opportunity Quilt to support all the great speakers and programs throughout the year. We also hope that you will help the Guild show this quilt at various events throughout the year as well as buying extra tickets as gifts or sell to friends, relatives, neighbors and co-workers. Try putting it on your Facebook or Instagram page to generate some buzz. We will be contacting each Friendship Group in the Guild to help with at least one event or venue during the year. If you would like to volunteer to be the coordinator of arranging for showing the Opportunity Quilt, please contact either Jan Conklin or Sylvia Williams. Or, if you'd like to show it at an event, please let us know.

Minutes for the Fallbrook General Meeting, — June 6, 2019

Meeting was called to order by Sylvia Williams

We enjoyed a delicious pot luck!

Sylvia thanked all old and in-coming board members and committee members for their contribution to the guild.

Dixie Johns introduced the upcoming fabric challenge for the coming year. Projects due at the December meeting. She also introduced the upcoming class for July. Betsy Shirkey gave the treasurer's report. Her last one and she was doing her happy dance! She also had information about the upcoming auction. If you'd like to help, you can contact her or Jan Conklin.

Sandy Scott reminded us to get in our entries for the up coming quilt show. Diana Rash handed out the forms that night. Mara Woods gave a membership report. Mary-Anne Cardamon gave an up date for Quilts of Love. Linda Rosenfelt won the certificate.

Anne Turley had the participants of the Mystery Quilt come to the stage and show us their handiwork. She asked that the people, who made a mystery quilt, to please enter it into the up coming quilt show. They will have a special display.

Susie Alderson did the birthday drawing. Barbara Vajda did the monthly drawing.

Carol Carpenter won the drawing for the opportunity quilt "Romancing the Red".

Barb Anderson introduced the new opportunity quilt for 2019-2020.

The evening was completed with Show and Tell.

Minutes for the Fallbrook Quilt Guild Executive Board Meeting- June 14, 2019

In attendance were: Sylvia Williams, Jan Conklin Dianne Parker, Karen Johnston, Sandy Scott, and Jo Anne Russell

Meeting was called to order by Sylvia Williams.

Treasurer's report was submitted by email from Betsy Shirkey.

Jan Conklin gave a ways and means update.

Sandy Scott said that meetings for the quilt show will start next month.

Dianne Parker is working on reports that are due this summer.

The budget for 2019-2020 was approved. Dianne Parker made the motion and Karen Johnston seconded it.

The vote carried.

Sylvia Williams submitted a proposed calendar for the coming year.

Pending Jan Chow's input.

Sylvia Williams also brought up the subject of publicity. A discussion concluded that it might work best for the 1st V.P. to do the job, since that person has all of the necessary information. The subject will be further explored when Dixie Johns can have some input.

Meeting concluded.

Memo from Membership: Dues

Hi Everyone!

Our transition from one fiscal year to the next occurs July 1. Starting with the next meeting, Karen and I will be collecting dues of $30 per person for our "run" from July 1 2019 to June 30 2020. Please bring a check or cash, as we are not set up for charge card transactions. Your dues are just ONE part of the funds that enable us to offer you great programs and workshops, a nametag, a guest pass, an online newsletter and an online directory of all members so that you can contact each other. As always, we ask that you not utilize the directory for any other purpose..

The directory will be available in September, and if you want your name to be in it, you'll need to have paid your dues by early August. If you prefer to renew via mail, please print and fill out the membership form along with a check made out to the Fallbrook Quilt Guild (not FQG), P.O.Box 1704, Fallbrook 92088.

Thanks and we look forward to enjoying the year with you!
