Presidents Message for June

Hi Everyone,

Can you believe it's June already? This guild year has flown by. What a beautiful spring season we have had this year, the roses and flowers in my garden have loved the mild weather.

I'd like to thank everyone who has been on the guild board this year, as well as everyone who took on jobs manning the tables. You have all been wonderful! Our guild wouldn't be the fun and rewarding place it is without all you terrific ladies.

Our June meeting will be a great time to visit with each other and enjoy a terrific pot luck. The meeting starts at 6:00. Please remember to bring your tickets for the June raffle. I can't wait to see who will win our beautiful red and white quilt!

As always, I encourage you to please bring your projects and quilts for show and tell, it's often the best part of our meetings.

Best Regards,
Sylvia Williams

Programs and Workshops

Ok, we are rolling out our new programs and presentations. Here's what's coming up during the summer. xo, Dixie

July 11, 13 Lyn Brown (lynbrown.com) She comes to us from Orange County and is a long time quilting instructor via the community college, Craftsy, as well as guilds. At our meeting, Lyn will share her presentation called:

Paradise Precuts. Her workshop is a lovely star project called Floating Stars. She advertises them as follows:

Precut Paradise- presentation Love those precut packs? Not sure how to use them? Through material examples, Lyn shares many tips, tricks, and techniques for using those jelly rolls, charm packs, layer cakes and fat quarters.

Floating Stars- workshop This quilt is made up of mostly 5 1/2' squares, but fat quarters or scraps would work out great too!

August 1, 3 Lyn Mann (quiltsbylyn.com) Sylvia and I did a bit of recon at the El Camino Guild when Lyn came to them in April. This speaker was delightful and full of information as well as beautiful quilts. She must be a bit camera shy because I could find no photo of her. (She came to us in November of 2016 and presented Confessions of a Skewed up Quilter. Ring a bell?) This time, Lyn's lecture will be the same that we saw at El Camino, so we know this will be really good.

Head for the Border –presentation. Lyn shows a variety of borders, way beyond my standard 2" followed by a 4"border. She had a ton of items in her trunk show and presented in a way that elicited chuckles along with ooh and ahhs throughout her presentation.

Head for the Border-workshop Finally, a class that will help you get started planning a pieced border for your quilt. Most of the time spent will be working with the quilts that students bring in and together you will brainstorm the perfect border for it. Simple directions of where to start and what to look for will be covered. There will be multiple handouts listing the basics as well as giving some important formulas and piecing instructions. This will strictly be a design class and there will be no sewing involved.

So dig out that UFO quilt top that just needs that special border, and let Lyn to lead you to the next step of making the quilt spectacular

HOSPITALITY NEWS

Here is what we'd like our members to bring for June's Pot Luck:

A-G is asked to bring DESSERT;

H-M is asked to bring a MAIN DISH;

N-Z is asked to bring a SALAD of some sort.

Thanks,

Barbara Vajda

Memo from Membership: Dues

Hi Everyone!

Our transition from one fiscal year to the next occurs July 1. Starting with the next meeting, Karen and I will be collecting dues of $30 per person for our "run" from July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020. Please bring a check or cash, as we are not set up for charge card transactions. Your dues are just ONE part of the funds that enable us to offer you great programs and workshops, a nametag, a guest pass, an online newsletter and an online directory of all members so that you can contact each other. As always, we ask that you not utilize the directory for any other purpose..

The directory will be available in September, and if you want your name to be in it, you'll need to have paid your dues by early August. If you prefer to renew via mail, please print and fill out the membership form along with a check made out to the Fallbrook Quilt Guild (not FQG), P.O.Box 1704, Fallbrook 92088.

Thanks and we look forward to enjoying the year with you!

Mara and Karen (marawoods@yahoo.com, karejohnston@gmail.com)

MYSTERY QUILTS UNVEILED!

Please bring your mystery quilt, completed or not, to our June meeting for the big reveal. Let's show our quilts as a group for Show & Tell so that everyone can enjoy them.

Also, I would love to see our quilts hung as a group display in the November quilt show —be sure to enter your quilt.

Thank you to all who participated.

ANN TURLEY

Quilt Show News

For the months of May, June and July, here are activities you can participate in for the quilt show:

1. Sign-up to help with the Auction. See Betsy Shirkey.
2. Donate quilts for the Auction. See Betsy.
3. Sign up to help process and sell items at the Country Store. See Paula Manning.
4. Check your stash and sewing supplies for things you don't need any more and plan to donate them to the Country Store.
5. Think about the kind of technique you'd be willing to demonstrate.
See Ann Harris.
6. Sign up to help with the White Glove committee. See Ann Harris.

There will be more opportunities in the coming months. And don't forget to keep working on the quilt entries!

Thanks.

Sandy Scott

Quilt Show Auction

The Auction committee needs some help. We have many quilts that need to be quilted. They have backs and most have the batting. No need to do the binding unless you want. We are in need of batting. Any contribution is appreciated. If you have large scraps, we will put them together to make them usable. Also accepting donations of completed quilts, tops, panels and kits.

Your help is appreciated.

The Auction Committee.

HAPPY FATHERS DAY!

Fallbrook Quilt Guild May General Meeting Minutes for May 2, 2019

Meeting was called to order by Sylvia Williams.

Collette Ford introduced Sandy Corbin. Sandy gave a talk about making scrappy quilts fresh.

Betsy Shirkey gave the treasurer's report. She also explained how our money is spent. Answered any questions. She also asked for pant/skirt hangers for the auction items.

Sandy Scott let everyone know to start getting your entry forms ready for the quilt show. They are on the Guild website and she also had copies. She encouraged every member to enter at least one quilt.

Sylvia Williams asked if anyone had questions about the changes to the by-laws. There were no questions. A motion was made and seconded. A vote to approve the revised by-laws was taken and passed.

An update for Ways and Means was given by Sylvia Williams. She asked for help with selling tickets at the up coming venues.

The nominating committee completed a 2019/2020 slate of officers. They are: Sylvia Williams- President, Dixie Johns- 1st Vice President, Ann Turley- 2nd Vice President, Barbara Vajda- Treasurer, Jo Anne Russell- Secretary, Dianne Parker- Compliance Officer, Jan Conklin- Ways and Means, Mara Woods and Karen Johnston- Membership. Motion was made and approved to accept the new slate of officers.

We had Show and Tell by members of the Guild.

Our monthly drawings were from the birthday table and Cup and a Quarter.

Sylvia reminded members that our June meeting will start at 6:00 p.m. The meeting will be a pot-luck and the drawing for the opportunity quilt.

Executive Board meeting will be held at 10:00a.m., on May 10, at the Quilter's Cottage

Meeting was adjourned.
