MAY 2014 PRESENTER & WORKSHOP Sally Schneider

We are in for a real treat to have Sally Schneider. Sally is one of our big ticket presenters, as her workshops are in demand throughout the US. She presents frequently for AQS and was at their March show in Lancaster, PA where the fees to attend her Confessions of a Scrap Maniac lecture was $20, and attending her Happy Days workshop was $100. You are eligible for great bargain!

Sally is a quilt designer and author currently living in Albuquerque, New Mexico. She has been quilting since 1971, and has made several hundred quilts since then. A specialist in scrap quilts and built-in borders, Sally has written ten books. Her eleventh book, Scrap Quilts Fit for a Queen (or a King), is in progress. Active as a quilting teacher since 1980, she has also been as a quilt-book editor and selection panelist for The 20th Century's 100 Best American Quilts. She has been nominated as one of the AQS's All-American Teachers and for The Professional Quilter™ magazine's Professional Teacher of the Year. To learn more, visit Sally's delightful website <http://www.sallyschneider.com>.

Confessions of a Scrap Maniac: We all have scrap bags, boxes, or barrels full of bits and pieces of material. But what are we doing with these fabrics? You'll see how Sally purchases fabrics, prepares her scraps so they are ready to use when she wants to make a quilt, and how to choose good designs. Explore the elements of a good scrap quilt. (free for members)

Happy Days Workshop: A cheerful combination of stars and pinwheels with several easy techniques thrown in. This quilt looks equally good as a scrap quilt or as a three-color quilt. The quilt in Scrap Quilts Fit for a Queen is scrappy, and if you would like to use your scraps, please feel free—just cut the pieces listed from a lot of different fabrics. But if you prefer to use just a few, follow the list. ($30 for members)

Workshops are held at the Fallbrook Senior Center
399 Heald Lane, Fallbrook CA

Classes: 9:00AM to 3:00PM

Please be set up and ready to start at 9:00AM
$30 for members, $40 for non-members..
Bring lunch and drink if desired.

To make planning easier on everyone we will be holding our Executive Board meetings on the second Friday of each month at 10:00am. I am in the process of securing a location that will accommodate everyone. If you would like to know the location of the upcoming May 9, 2014, it will be announced at the May 1, 2014 meeting or you can e-mail or call me (Bakegold@msn.com, (951) 461-6585).

Some of you may have seen this already, but I thought I'd share it with you.

Ten Good Reasons to Buy Fabric

It insulates the cupboard where it is kept.

It keeps the economy moving.

It's less expensive and more fun than psychiatric care.

The one who dies with the most fabric wins.

It keeps without refrigeration. You don't have to cook it to enjoy it, you'll never have to feed it, change it, wipe it, or walk it.

It asks for nothing in return.

It's good for protecting previously empty spaces.

It's not fattening

Because it was on sale

Buy it before your husband retires and wants to go shopping with you.

I wish each and every one of you a glorious Easter, I'm sure some shop somewhere is having a sale!

From the Membership Table!

Thank you ladies for signing in when you arrive! (Or sometime during the meeting!)

We have had over 70 members sign in for the past three months - and guests every month! That would suggest that our guild is a hoppin' place, and with all the energy we've had, in the past few months especially, I would have to agree!

Please invite your friends and neighbors to join you. A great speaker in May and then our pot-luck in June! And, Ann Turley will have some great new and familiar faces for us. The line up is a good one and you will want to share it.

We'll have treats for you at the Membership table, so stop by, sign in and share a smile with us.

Happy Easter! And doesn't it just feel like Spring all over!

All our best to you,
Susie and Jo Anne

HOSPITALITY

As amazing as it is, we only have two more months of this fiscal year!

Our April food selection was so incredible and the decorations certainly got us in the mood for Easter!

We would like to thank Susie Alderson, Anne Ondraka, Marj Freda, Sarah Hibbard, Linda Flynn, Josie Walel, Connie Follstad, Isabel Hernandez, Barbara Vajda, MaryAnn Cardamon, Barb Anderson and Irene Althaus for the delicious refreshments.

Next month (May) we will be treated to the 'table' by the Sassy Sisters Friendship Group.

Also, next month, look for the listing for our June Pot Luck Dinner. We will post the item you are to bring, according to your last name, in the next Newsletter.

Thank you again and again for making this a wonderful job for the Guild!

Tina Rainey and Betsy Shirkey

WISHING EVERYONE A VERY HAPPY EASTER AND MOTHER'S DAY !!

Fallbrook Quilt Guild Scholarship Deadline Nears

The deadline for a scholarship up to $1500 is quickly approaching. April 21, 2014 is the deadline for applications to be submitted for the Fallbrook Quilt Guild scholarship.

This scholarship is being offered to any graduating high school senior in the Fallbrook Quilt Guild membership area who will be attending an accredited college or university during the 2014-15 academic year.

While not a requirement, preference may be given to someone who has a family member or close friend in the Guild. Preference may also be given to someone connected to quilting and/or fiber arts. Application requirement information as well as the application itself can be accessed through the website at www.fallbrookquiltguild.com.

The Fallbrook Quilt Guild is involved in many philanthropic activities, such as making "quilts of love" for newborns at Camp Pendleton. Scholarship money is funded by participation in the Fallbrook Fall Festival, by putting on a quilt show every other year, and by selling opportunity tickets for a beautiful hand-made quilt.

This is a great scholarship, and you are encouraged to let those graduating seniors you know apply for it.

Mary Morrison
Scholarship Chairperson

Besides quilting, many of us enjoy gardening and beautiful gardens. If so, please consider attending the Fallbrook Branch of the American Association of University Women's Country Garden Tour of Fallbrook. Five exemplary gardens will be on the tour plus a Dragon Fruit "Plantation". The tickets are $25 at the door, or $20 presale available at Major Market, Fallbrook Chamber of Commerce or by calling 760-728-4459. All proceeds go to local scholarships. The date is Saturday, May 10, 10-4 and begins at the Palamares House, 1815 Stagecoach Lane. Complementary refreshments are available and garden related merchants will be on hand. A great way to celebrate Mother's Day.

Thanks for your consideration, Marj Freda
