

FALLBROOK QUILT GUILD

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Volunteers are not paid...not because they are worthless, but because they are priceless!

Dear Quilting Sisters,

This has been such a wonderful guild year for the Fallbrook Quilt Guild, and a multitude of thanks is owed to all of our guild members who have so very generously made the commitment to volunteer their time, efforts, and creativity toward bringing about a guild year that was successful in so many ways. We have had a year that has seen growth in our membership, a fantastically rewarding quilt show, the implementation of new ideas for increasing guild operation efficiency, and greater community involvement. All of this would not have been possible without those of you who stepped up to the plate, in such a great variety of ways, to serve your guild.

My most heartfelt appreciation goes out to my Executive Board members, who were all “newbies” when the 2015-2016 guild year began, and who “hung in there” with a “newbie president” with faith, generosity, and encouragement. First VP Dawn Johnson, 2nd VP Lou Cobb, Treasurer Barb Vajda, Secretary Cheryl Jeter, Membership Chairs Ardis Duhachek and Diana Rash, Newsletter Editor Christy Smith, and Ways & Means Chair Jan Conklin showed up, spoke up, offered both enthusiastic and prudent suggestions, worried with me, and laughed with me at Board meeting after Board meeting. Sometimes, not everyone could be there, but the guild’s business was attended to each and every month. Ladies! We could not have done it without each of you!

Special thanks to Marie Sundsboe, who has been our Acting Non-Profit Compliance Officer keeping our guild legal and in compliance with Federal, State, and local agencies. She’s a quiet one, who goes about doing her job and doing it extremely well. Thank goodness Marie has agreed to become an Executive Board member for guild year 2016-2017.

Additional gratitude goes to those who offered their past experiences as food for thought: Past-presidents Sharon Baker, Andrina Lilly, Rosalie Mikelson, Betty Hall, and Gigi Sartor...Thank you! Your experienced advice was especially valuable to me.

Jessie Lee (aka Mom), Thank you so much! You opened up your lovely home for our Board’s first Meet n Greet last June, and our Board Meeting in March. Not only did we benefit from seeing many of your beautiful quilts, we enjoyed your lovely flower gardens, and witty commentary, as well. Jan Chow and Diane Miller, thank you so very much for all of your support for our guild. And, for providing board meeting room space at your wonderful Quilter’s Cottage. You not only let us take over your classroom, but even set up tables and chairs for us in the cozy back room when the classroom was not available. You two, and Marian Madden, too, are treasures!

“Words to Live By,” our fabulous opportunity quilt, was a very well-traveled quilt this past year due to the industrious organization, creative, and determined persistent efforts of the ABC’s, otherwise known as Susie Alderson, Sharon Baker, and Ways & Means Chair Jan Conklin. You ladies did a fantastic job of insuring that you “spread the Word” throughout our county and beyond! Not an easy job, but you did it so very well! Our guild coffers bear the rich rewards of your efforts!

Other committee chairs and co-chairs, which have provided steady funding to our guild through their monthly raffles, are Block-of-the-Month chairs providing inspiring and accurate blocks each month. They were Roberta Balla, Wendy Bean, and Dixie Johns. Our Cup and a Quarter runneth over with lovely fabrics and cups through the efforts of Betsy Shirkey and Vivian Borgstrom. Linda Musillami and Patty Kass made sure we had great door prizes to tempt us each month. And, the Monthly Drawing was coordinated through the talents of Barb Anderson and Ursula Hohaus-Hawkins. Thank you each and every one of you! Your efforts provided our members with wonderful raffle items that encouraged some very entertaining competition.

Connie Follstad, Floyce Royer, Mary Anne Cardamon, and Judy Ortega put together hundreds of kits for Quilts of Love to be donated to babies born to military personnel at Camp Pendleton. They made sure each quilt kit was extra special!

Our quilting academics Dixie Johns, Jan Chow, and Connie Follstad made sure our scholarship award was well-publicized throughout the area, and then they read, re-read, and then re-read some more when all the applications and essays poured in. They took their responsibilities very seriously, and our guild can rest assured that our scholarship award goes to the most deserving and qualified student recipient.

Hospitality was provided through the joint efforts of the Tuesday Girls, who made sure the refreshment tables were always set up and refreshments were provided. Thank you, Tuesday Girls! Your 4th of July and Christmas tables were especially fun and creative. And, your implementation of gathering donations to the Fallbrook Food Pantry was such a great idea, one to be sustained each year.

Irene Althaus lent her special personal touch as Sunshine chair. And, Irene provided us with a delightful evening as guest speaker in April extolling the varied and colorful history of Chicken Linens. Along with sharing her personal collection of linens, Irene shared delightfully amusing stories and poetry surrounding the uses of those textiles.

Newsletter distribution and publicity kudos go to Robin Howell and Marj Freda, respectively. Advertising duties were handled by Sylvia Williams and Chelley Erickson. Thank you, ladies!

Mary Morrison undertook the daunting task of Design and Construct for our 2016-2017 Opportunity Quilt. She made, and taught the making of, 1000s of little hexagons until she was making them in her sleep. The resulting quilt is gorgeous! She maintained her Mary Morrison signature good humor the entire time! Thank you, Mary!

Our library, which is being phased out due to forfeiture of storage space, was maintained by Karen Wilson. Thank you, Karen!

Andi Hard served as guild historian for us this past year to record Show & Tell participants and to take photos. Thank you, Andi!

Our guild was thrilled to enjoy an amazing trunk show by Deb Raver when she shared a treasury of her artistic creations. Starting with her very first embroidered doll bed coverlet (at age five!), Deb delighted us with wonderful stories surrounding her beautiful quilts. Thank you so much, Deb, your trunk show was a genuine gift to all of us.

Ann Harris guided our history group quilters through an important passage of American history by teaching about the Lowell Mills girls. Ann's history group created an outstanding display of very special quilts, which were an impressive feature of our quilt show. Thank you, Ann, for your generous teaching.

And, last, but certainly not least by any means, is our own Sandy Scott. Sandy is a treasure, Sandy is a jewel! She coordinated and directed our biennial quilt show of 2015, and the fantastic success was testament to her organizational, managerial, and all around cool headedness! Sandy also makes sure our guild directory is updated and accurate each year, as well as maintaining our website. She also maintains an amazing wealth of guild history, procedures, and general guild knowledge. Many, many hats off to you, Sandy

Well, folks, I'm at the end of this rather lengthy tome, and I'm hoping most sincerely that I have not left anyone out in this letter of genuine appreciation. Please know that to all of you who stepped up to the plate, substituted at the last minute, or lent helping hands without recognition, you are all gems, jewels, and treasures! I would consider myself to be so very fortunate to have the honor of working with each and every one of you again.

Sending all of you warm, quilty hugs,

Shirley Fleming

GENERAL MEETING MINUTES

Call to Order: A general membership meeting of the FQG was held at the Fallbrook Community Center in Fallbrook, Ca., on April 7, 2016. The meeting was convened at 6:30 PM, by our presiding President Shirley Fleming, who led the Pledge of Allegiance.

President's Announcements:

- Welcome to all that came out tonight. Please feel free to enjoy refreshments at any time during the meeting. We have a special speaker tonight – our very own Irene Althaus, sharing her collection and the history of “Chicken Linens.”
- Minutes of the Mar. guild and board meeting were reviewed, approved and published in the last newsletter. Our next board meeting will be on April 15, 2016 at 10a.m, at the Quilter's Cottage. All members are welcomed and encouraged to attend, to present any ideas or concerns. Your input is both valued and appreciated.
- The Turnover meeting for outgoing and incoming Board and committee members will be held on June 4th, at 9:30a.m., at FPUD. All members involved are required to attend in order to make a smooth transition. Outgoing officers and chairs must have their procedure manuals updated and ready to turn over.
- After our break tonight, we will be voting on changes to some existing bylaws and/or job descriptions, and the newly established Board position of Non-Profit Compliance Officer (NPCO). A printout of proposed changes and a description of the NPCO position was placed on your chair, please take time to read this info and be prepared to vote after the break.
- The Fallbrook Chamber of Commerce reports that our “Diversity of Quilts” display at the Chamber offices is a big hit, and is eliciting much interest from visitors to Fallbrook, as well as those who have made a special trip to the Chamber offices to view the display.
- Nominations for all Board members and committee chairs have been completed. Please give Barb Vajda, and Lou Cobb a big round of applause, for doing such a wonderful job!! Lou is in Vegas tonight so Barb will be presenting the nominees shortly.

Treasurer (Barb Vajda): Our current bank balance is 32,778. Mar. income was $1041, and Mar. expenses were $1891. Note: the Boutique brought in $294 in March.

Nominating Committee (Barb Vajda and Lou Cobb): Barb presented the nominees for the Executive Board and committee chairs for 2016-2017 year.

Membership (Ardis Duhachek/Diana Rash): we have 51 members signed in, 2 new members, and 2 guests, this evening. We have a total of 112 guild members.

Ways and Means (Jan Conklin): Thanks to everyone that stopped by the Cottage during the Quilt Run to purchase tickets. On April 23rd we will be showing the Opportunity Quilt at Primitive Gatherings in Murrieta. On May 7th we will be at Rooster Creek in Old Town Murrieta. We need members to help sell tickets here. May 12th the Opportunity Quilt will be shown at the El Camino Quilt Guild meeting. Again we need members to help us sell tickets. Mary tabor is their guest speaker.

REMINDER – if you still own any money for your Opportunity Quilt tickets please have it to us by the end of the month. Reminders have been mailed out to those that still owe money. We have been trying to reach Sharon Walters, and Wynell Moore, if you have contact info please let me know.

Hospitality (Sue Burns): thanked everyone who has brought food this year. Special thanks tonight to the “Sewing Sister’s” who provided the food for tonight. We only have 4 signed up to bring food in May. Passing clip board around for more sign ups. Remember that June is our potluck, we will be doing salads and desserts. Shirley mentioned at that the El Camino Guild, they bring food in alphabetical order according to their last name. This ensures that all members provide something during the year. Something we might want to consider.

Shop and Swap (Sylvia Williams): we sold $57.00 tonight. Thanks to everyone that brought things in.

Special Announcement (Marj Freda): the 21st Annual Country Garden Tour, sponsored by AAUW Fallbrook is on Sat. May 7th, from 10a.m. to 4 p.m. The tour begins at Palomares House. Tickets are sold at Major Market, Fallbrook C of C, and the Avocado Festival. This event raises scholarship funds for Fallbrook and Bonsall young women.

Programs and Workshops (Shirley Fleming for Dawn Johnson):

May: Claudia Gomez will be presenting "Motion is Lotion" at the meeting and her workshop on May 5th will be "The French Door Wall Hanging". Space is still available for her workshop

Remember our workshops are a bargain at $35.

Tonight our speaker is our own exquisite quilter – Irene Althaus, to show and tell us about her wonderful collection of "Chicken Linens".

BREAK - we will take a 15 min. break and then vote when we come back.

Presentation of changes to Bylaws and our newly formed Non Profit Compliance Officer Board member, with a vote by the membership.

A) On the issue of establishing the new board position of Non Profit Compliance Officer, the new bylaw and job description were read to the members. Motion to establish this position was made by Jan Conklin, with a 2nd motion made by Rosalie Mickelson. Members of guild approved the new position.

B) Scholarship Committee Bylaw changes -proposed changes to the bylaws concerning the scholarship committee and scholarship applications were read to the members. A motion to pass approve changes was made by Sharon Baker, with a 2nd motion made by Barb Vajda. Members of the guild approved the changes.

C) Block of the Month Committee Description changes – proposed changes were read to the members. A motion to pass was made by Tina Rainey, with a 2nd motion made by Marie Sundsboe. Members of the guild approved the changes.

Show and Tell: Tina Rainey (for adoption agency), Louise Linfoot, Lois Sprague, Betsy Shirkey, Irene Althaus, Karen Granoff, Roberta Balla, Shirley Fleming, and Floyce Royer – showing some of the Quilts of Love turned in tonight.

Cup and a Quarter: tonight's cups were donated by Diana Rash, Connie Follstad, Dixie Johns, and Andrea Hard. Winners are Karen Granoff, Linda Palmer, Betty Hall, and Sharon Baker.

Door Prizes: winners are Barb Vajda, Vicki Lewis, Wynell Moore, Susie Alderson, Tina Rainey, Linda Huff, Wendy Bean, Sue Burns, and Jessie Lee.

Monthly Drawing donated by Sharon Baker. Winner is Carol Kratzer.

Block of the Month - winner is Sylvia Williams. Thanks to Betty Hall for donating the fabrics for this block.

Meeting adjourned at 8:35.

BOARD MEETING MINUTES

Call to Order: An Executive Board/Committee Chair Meeting of the F.Q.G. was held on April 15th, 2016 at the Quilter's Cottage, in Fallbrook CA. The meeting was convened at 10:00 A.M. Presiding was President Shirley Fleming. Members present were Barb Vajda, Cheryl Jeter, Dawn Johnson, Ardis Duhachek, Lou Cobb, Christy Smith, Dixie Johns and Jan Conklin.

Committee Reports:

Treasurer's Report (Barbara Vajda): April income was $516.62, expenses were $495.30. Current balance is $32,984.47.

Membership (Ardis Duhachek, Diana Rash): we had 57 members at the April meeting, including 2 new members. This brings our total membership 114. Ardis and Diana had new business cards printed and included our website and Facebook info on the back.

Ways and Means (Jan Conklin): a total of $4397.00 has been collect to date on Opportunity Quilt ticket sales. There are still several members that have not paid for or paid in full for their tickets. This includes: Donna Johnson (has moved out of state), Sharon Walters, Bonnie Cagigas, Mary Anne Cardemon (mailing her check in), Kathy Carr, Sherry Smith, and Karen Wilson

Jan told Christy Smith that she has built a data base on the members and will print out labels for the new Ways and Means committee. She also advised Christy to increase the budget for Ways and Means for the next year, for printing increases. Jan also told Christy she will help out the new committee in July and Aug.

Jan is planning on showing the Opportunity Quilt at 1) Primitive Gatherings on April 23rd, 2) Calling Marj Freda to see if they can get into the AAUW Garden Tour on May 7th, and 3) waiting to see if they can take to the El Camino Quilt Guild meeting on May 12th.

Newsletter (Christy Smith): articles for the April newsletter need to be to Christy by April 22nd. Lou will be forwarding the finalized list of Board and committee chairs for the 2016-2017 year to publish in the newsletter.

Scholarship (Dixie Johns): Dixie thanked the board for approving the scholarship nominee so quickly. There were 16 applicants, from 6 schools, this year and they all scored fairly close, but our nominee stood out above the others. The candidates are scored on five areas and points awarded for each category. Christy Smith asked the question "if any of the other candidates had more experience with quilting?" The answer was not really.

Dixie asked for the opinion of the board on supporting local vendors with our business vs. ordering on line in order to save money. After some discussion it was decided and approved by the board to continue to support the local vendors, as so many of them support the guild in various ways.

Shirley thanked Dixie Johns, Connie Follstad, and Jan Chow for the great work they did in reviewing and determining our scholarship nominee.

Turnover Meeting (Shirley Fleming): the turnover meeting for the outgoing and incoming Board and Committee Chairs will be on June 4th, at 9:30a.m., at FPUD. All board and committee chairs need to have their binders updated and ready to turn over. Marie Sundsboe will also be reviewing and updating any binders that require documentation and reporting to the state, to keep us in compliance. Ardis asked how long membership needed to keep the sign-in sheets, and information pertaining to recording monies received from members for dues. No need to keep sign-in sheets, but must maintain any reports pertaining to monies collected for 5 yrs. There will be coffee and refreshments.

Programs 2016-2017 (Lou Cobb): has all programs scheduled and most contracts are in. She has the trifold program for next year's programs ready to go. Since she wants to print the brochure in color, it will cost more, but will increase the number printed this year to have available at events we do, Ways and Means to pass out, Chamber of Commerce, quilt shops, boutique events, and our quilt show. Will be getting a quote on printing at least 1000-2000. It was suggested that the guest pass be printed inside the brochure, which Lou has room to add.

Boutique (Lou Cobb): Lou's strategy for 2016 is to keep a low profile with the boutique, and look for venues/events that are economical and easy to do. We begin increasing awareness of the boutique at the beginning of 2017, to start ramping up for the Quilt Show in Nov. 2017. She has decided not to do an event for Mother's Day. Had nice success at the Historical Society in March, selling nearly $300. Will do other Historical Society events in the future.

Andrina and Lou are coordinating advertising efforts on our next Quilt Show to have info printed and ready to begin passing out at Road 2017.

Lou and Linda Flynn will be going to the Avocado Festival on April 17th to hopefully get a booth for the 2017 Avocado Festival to sell boutique items.

Shirley made a suggestion about approaching some of the local businesses about making a quilt specific to their business. The business would be asked to pay for the materials needed and hopefully some of our guild members would volunteer to make the quilts. These would be an additional way to promote the guild.

Claudia Gomez Program and Workshop (Dawn Johnson): Dawn currently has only 3 members signed up for the May workshop with Claudia. It was decided to leave the workshop in place and not cancel it as more members may sign up for it at the May meeting after hearing Claudia's program.

Friendship Committee (Shirley Fleming and Barb Vajda): Judy Ortega has accepted the position of Friendship Committee chair.

There has been proposed "coffee or tea" meet and greet for new members, and to organize new friendship groups.

Misc.

A) Suggestion by Gigi Sator to add a "What's New at the Cottage" article to the newsletter. Ardis made a motion to approve, Jan Conklin made a 2nd motion to approve. Board approved the suggestion.

B) Follow-up by Shirley with Jan on organizing some field trips for the guild. Hoffman Fabrics had been previously suggested. Other suggestions were Visions Museum, Piecemakers in Costa Mesa and L&M Fabrics in Costa Mesa. Jan will be looking into car pool/caravan options for a field trip to Hoffman Fabrics.

C) It was decided to keep the position of Historian, so Lou will be contacting Collette Ford to see if she will be willing to take pictures during the meeting, since she will be the new Newsletter editor for the new year.

Next Executive Board Meeting: May 13, 2016, at Quilter's Cottage

Meeting Adjourned: 11:55

Submitted by Cheryl Jeter, Secretary

The upcoming May 5th program "Motion Is Lotion" will be given by Claudia Dallas Gomez. She is a modern quilter who uses architectural software to design her quilts, and then she dyes her own custom color palettes. When it comes to quilting, she organizes space with bold shapes & rhythmic echo quilting. You won't want to miss this opportunity!

She will be giving a workshop "The French Door" on Saturday May 7th. The class will be held at FPUD 990 E Mission Rd, Fallbrook, from 9 to 3. Please contact Dawn Johnson at positiveimpressions@earthlink.net or 909-635-7839 to sign up. $35 for members $45 for non-members.

Ways & Means for May 2016

During the month of April we sold tickets at the Primitive Gatherings store in Murrieta and had a great time. On May 7th we'll be at the Fallbrook Garden Tour. Then on May 12th at the El Camino Quilt Guild meeting in Vista, with an added bonus of hearing the speaker Mary Tabar. We've had a lot of fun showing this popular quilt throughout the year and enjoyed the support of so many members and friends to which we are so grateful. With Mother's, Father's Day, Graduations and weddings just around the corner a few of you bought more tickets in April but there's still time to increase your chances of winning this amazing gift for someone or even yourself!

June 2nd is the drawing, and a winner could be one of you who turned in their tickets and paid for them. Thanks to those who did so in April. But for those quilters that still haven't done so. now is the time. There are just a few of you who need to pay for the ones you've already picked up and just a few that need to pick up and pay for tickets. Three of you that only had a $20 bill in July owe $5 of the $25 that was due. If you received an e-mail, phone call, or friendly nudge from one of us, please help us achieve our goal this year.

As we've mentioned, the odds are better than the lottery so play to win...it could be you!

Block of the Month Workshop

In June, the workshop will be a culminating activity involving this year's blocks of the month. Deb Raver has designed the appliqued center block as pictured specifically for our use. Her finished wall hanging is surrounded by twelve blocks that we have used this year. She chose corner blocks to be stars and filled it in with other patterns that we have used this year. What you chose to surround your center block is up to you.

At the workshop, you will be given a copy of the paper pattern and will be schooled in the English paper applique method that Deb uses. You will be using your own fabric. Dawn Johnson, Vice President/ workshop chair, has a materials list which includes some fabric cutting that needs to be done before the start of class. Class space is limited, so sign up either at guild meeting or by contacting Dawn as soon as you know.

When: June 11 (not the first Saturday in June);

Time: 9-3pm

Where: FPUD

Cost: $5.00

JOIN US IN JUNE!

OFFICER TURNOVER TIME

We will be holding a Turnover Meeting of outgoing and incoming Board officers and committee chairs on Saturday, June 4th at 9:30 a.m. at the Fallbrook Public Utility District's conference room. All outgoing and incoming Board and committee chairs are required to attend to make a smooth transition for the new guild year 2016-2017. Those who are outgoing need to bring their complete and updated procedure manuals with them to turnover to those incoming.

Though we have tried making this an informal process in the past by allowing all parties to make the exchange of procedure manuals and information at their leisure, this has not been successful. By holding a special meeting for this, your current Board is anticipating that this will allow everyone to ask and answer any questions regarding transition.

Mark your calendars to save this date!

Thanx, Floyce Royer

Thank you soooo much to the Sew and Sews II for their yummy refreshments in April! Wow! So delicious and such a nice variety—kudos to all of you!

Susie Alderson picked up Linda Huff's Pyrex bowl so she could return it to her last month! Thanks, Susie!

I am continually amazed and thankful for our guild member's generosity! We only had four sign-ups for refreshments for our May meeting and when I asked for a few more at last meeting, all of a sudden, we had eleven! Plus, I had at least five more members come up to me during the break and ask if we needed any more sign-ups! This is the second, third, or more time that many have volunteered—what a great group! Here are the gals who volunteered for May:
