Hi Ladies,

We've made it to May, and we're almost at the end of the guild year. Thank you to those who have taken the time to respond to the survey. If you haven't gotten a chance to do so yet, please take a few minutes to express your opinions so your voice will be heard and counted as we move forward to a new guild year.

The nominating committee has presented the following slate of people willing to serve on the executive board:

President - Sharon Boehm
1st Vice President - Karen Johnston
2nd Vice President - Ann Turley
Secretary - Mara Woods
Treasurer - Tricia Voight
Compliance - Colette Ford
Ways and Means - Penny Bottomly
Membership - Linda Rosensteel and Gayle Luzyk

We will vote on the slate at our May meeting. I'd like to thank the nominating committee for finding a great group to guide our guild. And a big thank you to all of those who volunteered to serve on the board or chair a committee.

I look forward to seeing your story quilts on Thursday May 5. Doors open at 1 with the meeting starting at 1:30.

With best regards,

Frannie Marr

FQG President

From the Programs Team

Fallbrook Quilt Guild is nothing if not resilient, and we have certainly proved this during the past year or so. With that in mind, we are being called to be flexible once again. Unfortunately, our May speaker has had to cancel both her program and workshop due to family issues. Karen Johnston and I put our heads together and came up with what we think will be a fun afternoon. “Tell Me A Story” presents the opportunity for all of us to hear the story behind some of the fabulous quilts our members have made, the special reasons and details that perhaps the maker has yet to share. I’ve asked several of our prolific quilters to dig deep into their work to find that one special quilt and share its story with all of us. We also want to ask that others find that one special quilt and share it with us during Show & Tell. We also will be introducing a semi-long-term project we hope you all will want to be a part of. What is it? You must attend the May meeting to find out!

Happy Quilting
Ann Turley

June pot-luck

In speaking with a few guild members, we have decided not to assign dishes according to your last name. Instead, please bring a dish of your choice (entrée, salad, or dessert) to serve at least 6-8 people. The Hospitality Committee will supply bottled water and paper goods. We look forward to enjoying our monthly fellowship and a great smorgasbord of goodies with all of you.

Thank you,
Carol Wilson & Becky Forbes

Fallbrook Quilt Guild Board Meeting Minutes

March 23, 2022

Meeting opened 1:04

Members present – Frannie Marr, Tricia Voight, Ann Turley, Karen Johnston, Linda Rosensteel, Barb Anderson, Penny Bottomly, guest Jan Conklin.

Next meeting April 13 will be at Barb Andersons, 1:00, 1388 Las Vistas

Ann Turley made a motion to approve the minutes of the last meeting, seconded by Linda Rosensteel, minutes were approved.

Frannie announced new officers will be installed at the June Guild meeting and take office as of July 1, 2022

Reports

Programs: Ann Turley, Karen will be taking the April meeting. It will be a member sharing of tips, tools and techniques. The Saturday workshop will be making Quilts of Love. Dixie Johns is organizing this. May will feature Wendy Knight Art quilter. Her workshop Saturday will be instruction on making an art quilt featuring a horse. She will provide kits for $25.

June will be the installation meeting, with a pot-luck. Tina Rainey will be asked to do the installation. To keep costs to a minimum, it was suggested that each table could be responsible for the table ware and decorations.

Karen reported there will be a conflict in August due to the Long Beach Quilt Festival. Therefore, she suggested that the Saturday workshop be cancelled.

Treasurer's Report: Barb Anderson reported $700 income this month and several checks were sent out. There is approximately a $33,000 balance. Jan reported on the process for submitting money to treasurer. Any funds being delivered to the treasurer should complete an Income submission form. Try to provide it to treasurer in a timely fashion in order that it can be deposited within the same month.

Ways and Means: Hemet Show did not make as much made as expected, $50. However, Book Sales at the last meeting netted $80. Books will be available at next meeting. $73 in Opportunity Quilt tickets were sold at Valley Quilters Guild March meeting.

Membership: Linda Rosensteel reported 86 members at this time with one returning member and two members requesting to be removed.

The upcoming survey was then reviewed by members making suggestions and corrections for the final questionnaire. Discussion included improved money-making activities at the Guild meeting.

An announcement was made that we have been invited to display art quilts at the Fallbrook Library in May. Quilts need to be 16X20 inches and turned in by April 15. Interested quilters are invited, contact Ann Turley for more information.

It was also stated that the Bylaws should be included in the next Guild Handbook. This concluded the meeting.

Ann Turley made a motion to close seconded by Linda Rosensteel, the meeting was adjourned at 2:55pm.

Respectfully submitted
Tricia Voight
