Editor's Note

Due to the attempts to scam our guild, we are no longer including Board Member contact information, meeting minutes, or budget information in the newsletter, since it is published on the guild's website. Minutes and financial information will be sent to guild members as separate attachments, and members will need to refer to directories for board contact information.

Remember that some scammers already have guild contact information so please continue to be vigilant.

Message from the President

Trick or Treat to all of you quilters out there 🎃

Well, we are moving to our afternoon meetings this month so please remind any member you see that there is a time change to earlier in the day.

Our September guild meeting was certainly lively and informative. Also fun and a good turnout! Our October meeting should be another good meeting and when you read Ann's article you will understand why. There is always something new to learn about our members and it helps to bring our group together.

Looking forward to seeing everyone and their Show and Tell so please remember to share what you have made or are working on.

Our next meeting is Thursday, October 5, 2023 at the Fallbrook Community Center. The doors open at 12:30pm and the meeting starts at 1:00pm.

Our next board meeting is Wednesday, October 11, 2023 at 1:00pm. We will meet at the Wellness Center on East Mission, near Stagecoach Road, in room 3. Please sign-in at the office when you arrive if you plan on attending.

Thanks and have a Bootiful day 👻
Enjoy your craft and appreciate your talent!

MESSAGE FROM THE 1ST VP

Sometimes convincing a speaker to use the microphone can be a difficult task to accomplish! But what Jeff Warner delivered without it was quite exciting. He certainly presented the most animated and energetic program we've seen in quite a while. I for one, was quite impressed by his knowledge and abilities and learned quite a bit about Bargello. His workshop was also very successful and Penny will tell you all about it.

October brings us a member-led program focusing on four of our friendship groups. Each will present a short discussion of their group and do a bit of show and tell. This will be an afternoon meeting.

Don't forget that November is dark because of our quilt show!

December is an evening meeting due to the age of our entertainers.

That's it for now and I hope to see you all soon.

MESSAGE FROM THE 2nd VP

One finished bargello from Jeff's workshop. Be sure to attend our next meeting as there should be 9 others from the class showing their finished projects.

Quilts of Love Appreciation

Just passing along this lovely thank you card from a quilt recipient. Many thanks to all of you who have donated materials, time, and love to this worthy cause!

Quilt Show Country Store Needs

Folded plastic grocery sacks are needed for use at the checkout table. Turn in your donations as soon as possible. Last collection date is October 15. Mara Woods will collect anything brought to the October meeting. Items may also be dropped off to the front porch of Dixie Johns' house at 2148 Stone Castle. Gate code for this drop off is: #2148.

Former Guild Member's New Address

I had a call from the son of a former guild member offering her sewing supplies to us. She had been very generous with donating first rate new fabric for quilts of love.

In the chat, he shared that his mom has moved to Silvergate. I thought our members may wish to have her current address and got his permission to share.
