Cathy Van Bruggen
Lecture - No Time to Sew

Do you want to sew but just can't find the time? This program is an informative and humorous presentation designed to give Members tips on how to use precious time to sew.

April 6, 2013 Saturday 9:00 am
Workshop: Nasturtiums

Needle turn technique is Cathy's preference because it is so forgiving. The needle is used to turn the edges under so there is very little "prep work" involved. The results are a soft edge that gives wonderful dimension to your finished project.

May 2, 2013 Thursday 6:30pm

Shelley Swandland"

Cathedral Windows and More Trunk Show"

Workshops will be held at: Fallbrook Senior Center, 399 Heald Lane, Fallbrook CA
9am to 3pm Please have yourself ready to start at 9am
$30 for members and $40 for non members...

President's Message—April 2013

In case you missed our last Guild meeting I have decided to include here a bit of what I found on the Internet when I did some research on the benefits of volunteering.

Volunteering:

- Connects you with others, and allows you to make new friends.
- Can be fun and provides a sense of fulfillment.
- Allows you to learn new tasks.
- Is a great way to pursue hobbies and interests, and do something you love.
- Provides an opportunity for you to make a difference in someone's life; Our Quilts of Love are shared with many families.
- Gives you a chance to feel challenged and energized.
- Can make you feel good.

Volunteering can also be a means of ESCAPE – this one baffled me for a moment until I realized that being active as a volunteer does allow me to escape from boredom, as well as, the humdrum routine of doing housework, cleaning bathrooms, and other tasks that I'd like to put off until another day.

So come and ESCAPE with me...VOLUNTEER for a task - Take a moment to find a spot where you can get the job done, while having fun and feeling good!

Hope to see you at the April Guild meeting - Rosalie Mikelson

Special Praise and Thanks to Our Ways and Means Committee.....

Shirley Fleming, Barbara Anderson, and Dixie Johns have been very busy coming up with some great fundraising opportunities for our Guild. They have created a variety of items for purchase and auction that have been very unique – How about that St. Patrick’s Day basket filled with over $100 of merchandise! When you have the opportunity be sure to personally thank them.

P.S. The April Silent Auction item is a delightful quilt – One of a kind that will make you smile!
