

Fallbrook Quilt Guild Newsletter December 2018

December's President's Message

Hi Everyone,

I'd like to wish all of you lovely ladies a beautiful and warm Holiday season as we move into December.

I'm looking forward to a wonderful Quilt Guild pot luck this month. Our terrific hospitality gals, Barbara and Jan have a special treat for us and I hope to see you all there. It's always so nice to share a special holiday meal time together.

I would also like to encourage you to sign up to white glove at Road to California in January. This great quilt show is just around the corner. White-glove volunteers receive free admission to the show. Please contact me if you'd like to volunteer.

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and joyous quilting to one and all!

Sylvia Williams

HOSPITALITY— SEE TIME CHANGE

Thank you to everyone that brought such wonderful goodies to November's meeting.

Our 6 December meeting is our Pot Luck. Please plan to arrive at 6:00 PM instead of 6:30 PM so we can enjoy each other's company and have everything on the table in order to start eating early before the entertainment performs.

For December's Pot Luck, please bring your favorite dish as follows by your last name:

A - K = a main dish (enough for 4 people to enjoy)

L - Z = a salad or desert (enough for 4 people to enjoy)

Wishing everyone a lovely and Happy Thanksgiving with family/friends.

We look forward to seeing you all on Thursday, 6 December at 6:00 PM.

FALLBROOK QUILT GUILD MEETING MINUTES FOR NOVEMBER 1, 2018

The meeting was called to order by Sylvia Williams, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. She introduced Grace Ward from the Hemet Quilt Guild with their opportunity quilt.

Collette Ford reviewed upcoming programs and classes. She then introduced our guest speaker, Heidi Stagno. Heidi gave a talk about, "Hints for Successfully Quilting your Quilt".

Break

Betsy Shirkey gave the treasurer's report including an update of sales for boutique items.

Sylvia Williams gave a report for Ways and Means. She is requesting volunteers to white glove at Road2Ca.

Mara Woods and Karen Johnson presented an update for membership. We now have 92 members.

Ann Turley gave directions for the mystery quilt. There will be no directions for December, which will give members a chance to catch up.

Barbara Vajda said that information for the December pot luck would be coming at a later date.

The following chairs had their monthly drawings: Show and Tell, Cup and a Quarter, Birthday Drawings, and the Monthly Drawing.

The November 9, Executive Board Meeting was cancelled. Many board members would be out of town attending the Houston Quilt Show.

RESPOND TO ANDREA BACAL newsletter@canyonquilters.com

The deadliest and most destructive fire in California history erupted at dawn on Nov. 8 in the drought-parched Sierra foothills northeast of Chico, and within minutes, stiff winds whipped it into a monster. At first what has come to be known as the Camp Fire devoured 10 football-field-size chunks of terrain every minute — and then, with a startling ferocity that has become all too familiar in recent years, it rampaged through Butte County neighborhoods. With little to no warning, residents fled the town of Paradise and surrounding villages down the few car-choked escape routes, but many never had a chance. More than a week later, the blaze continues to burn as officials log the ever-increasing tallies of devastation: Scores dead, hundreds missing, and nearly 10,000 homes destroyed. Recovery is expected to take years.

WE CAN HELP!

If you are able to donate a quilt for Paradise Fire Victims, Sylvia Corbin of Canyon Quilters will transport the quilts to Chico, CA, on Tuesday, November 27 to help fire victims who lost everything.

Anyone with quilts for the fire victims can drop them off at

Sew Hut, 4226 Balboa Ave, SD 92117. No later than 3 pm Saturday November 24

Or call Sylvia Corbin at 1-619-252-8798 or 1-858-272-8798
