PRESIDENT'S SASHES

Ahhhhh! February.....Valentine's Heart month. This is the month we show how much we love & care. Everyone remembers when you got those Valentine hearts furtively passed to you? Remember that feeling? Let's spread that feeling around this month. I am talking "Random Acts of Kindness", and let's do it as much as we can. Kindness comes in all shapes and sizes let's experiment and try some different ways to express it. I used to tell my daughter "everyday's a new day – another chance to make a difference in some bodies' life".

I was amazed at our January speaker, Cathy Van Bruggen (three generations of the Van Bruggens)....the "A" word comes to mind...yes it's "Appliqué"!....yes, one of these days I'll tackle that, yes one of these days..... We had a wonderfully full workshop and hopefully a good time was had by all.

We have a lot coming upPamela Mostek, our next speaker, will be visiting us from Washington State. If you get a chance take a couple of minutes and visit her website (www.pamelamostek.com) she is amazing. I think we could all benefit from her expertise. I, for one, signed up for that one. The Silent Auction – a chance to support our guild and Quilt Challenge is due in March...you remember those luscious fabrics (red, cream & blue) from the Quilter's Cottage, well its due in March.... there will be prizes, so be there or be square. Our own, Betsy Shirkey and her friendship crew will be with us in April. May will bring us Rami Kim with her "wearables" . And finally, the Mystery Quilt, brought to us by Sharon Wilhite, is due in June. Don't forget, the Quilt show is coming up, now's the time to start thinking about what jobs you'll want to volunteer for. It's a lot of fun and great way to get to know some of our other quilter's. Sandy Scott will be asking for help, so let's get out there and make the Fallbrook Quilt Show in November 2007 a success.

Show & Tell: Let's finish up those UFO's, we love to see them all. And we are doing such a great job getting out the charity quilts. The military and baby quilt "walk" for January inspired me yet again. Don't forget, your Show & Tell items will be brought up to the "staging area", where they will be folded and stacked for sharing and make sure you sign in. We plan to have the Show & Tell right before the break so you can have the opportunity to get a closer look and share your comments with the quilter.

Suggestion Basket: We had a great suggestion in December...yes, we are going to publish the material list for each workshop a month in advance. We are all busy and it will help all of us prepare our materials and get excited for the workshops. Keep those "cards & letters" coming in.

February Board Meeting: Monday the 5th at Mickey Nails' house: 1461 Knoll Park Lane in Fallbrook. 7pm to 8:30 ish. All are welcome.

Remember our Mission Statement: Share & Support. Thank You, Carol Harpin

Directories and Show sig-ups

Please review your entry in the Guild directory and provide changes to Sandy Scott, 723-5579. I know there have been changes in email addresses and those addresses are needed especially so you can get the newsletter (if by email).

Please use the form on the inserted page to sign up for different tasks at the quilt show. As you can see from the list, there are lots of different opportunities to help out. I'd like to encourage everyone to check one of the boxes – either to Chair, Co-Chair, or Help on any of the committees. We will be working the show the way we did last time, so those who've been involved in the committees before will be available to help out. We really have loads of fun! If there are any questions, please feel free to call me at 723-5579. Sandy Scott

CHARITY QUILTS

What a Happy New Year! In spite of holidays demands, quilters managed to provide 18 baby and wounded quilts at the January meeting. What a dedicated bunch. Donations were received from Lil Galante, Barb Anderson, Alta Jay, Linda Musillami, Mickey Nail, Linda Kacirek, Jan Gates, Kay Willcuts, Terry Kai, Neva Harris, Irene Akey (5), Linda Flynn, and Linda ————. Winner of the fabric patch for January was Linda Kacirek. Thanks to some VERY generous donations of fabric, new quilt kits will be available in February for simple patchwork as well as whole cloth kits. Suggestions for quick and easy “patchy” patterns are most welcome. And, as always, many thanks to Cindy Turner for delivering the quilts for us.

Pamela Mostek: Beyond Slice and Dice.

Ms. MOSTEK WILL TALK WITH OUR GUILD ABOUT THE FABRIC, THE FABRIC THAT IS JUST TOO BEAUTIFUL TO CUT INTO SMALL PIECES. SHE HAS A TECHNIQUE WE CAN ALL APPLY. HER LECTURE WILL SHOW HER "FOCUS OF THE FABRIC" BY FUSSING CUTTING AND BROFERIE PERSE APPLIQUE. SHE BEGAN QUILTING 20 YEARS AGO. "I LOVED HANDLING THE FABRIC...AND THOSE COLORS! I WAS INSTANTLY HOOKED. MY QUILTS HAVE ALWAYS BEEN ABOUT COLOR, EVEN FROM THOSE EARLY QUILTS. IT ALL SEEMED TO COME TOGETHER, AND I SET OUT MAKING QUILTS. ABOUT EIGHT YEARS AGO, I LEFT MY JOB AS A HIGH SCHOOL ENGLISH AND ART TEACHER, AND TOOK THE BIG PLUNGE INTO PROFESSIONAL QUILTING. FOR AS LONG AS I CAN REMEMBER.....I HAVE LOVED COLOR AND FABRIC. MY PASSION IS MAKING QUILTS BECAUSE IT BRINGS TOGETHER THESE TWO THINGS THAT I LOVE."

PAMELA HAS AUTHORED SIX BOOKS IN THE QUILTING INDUSTRY THAT HAVE BEEN PUBLISHED BY MARTINGALE & CO, DESIGNED FABRIC, AND TAUGHT QUILTING THROUGH OUT THE COUNTRY; DAZZLING QUILTS, QUILTS FROM LARKSPUR FARM, SCATTER GARDEN QUILTS, BLOSSOMS IN WINTER ENGLISH COTTAGE QUILTS, AND JUST CAN'T CUT IT.

AFTER ABOUT SIX YEARS OF DESIGNING AND PUBLISHING MORE OR LESS TRADITIONAL QUILT PATTERNS...SHE FOUND THAT MORE AND MORE THAT SHE WAS PULLED BACK TO THOSE EARLY YEARS STUDYING AND WORKING AS AN ARTIST. PAMELA HAS COME FULL CIRCLE COME FULL CIRCLE... ARTIST, QUILTER, AND FINALLY QUILT ARTIST! SHE STILL PUBLISH QUILT DESIGNS TO INSPIRE AND INSTRUCT OTHER QUILTERS, BUT HER PASSION HAS BECOME ART QUILTS.

SHE APPROACHES ART QUILTS LIKE A PAINTING. PAMELA WORKS IN A COLLAGE STYLE, CUTTING PIECES AND BLENDING COLORS AS SHE GOES. THE RESULTS CAN BE EVEN MORE REWARDING THAN PAINTING BECAUSE SHE HAS THE ADVANTAGE OF TEXTURE AND PATTERN...NOT JUST COLOR. SHE IS UNBELIEVABLY EXCITED AS SHE SEES THE QUILT DEVELOP. AND ONCE PAMELA IS SATISFIED WITH THAT PHASE, NEXT COMES THE STITCHING... THE ABSOLUTE FINISHING TOUCH.

Come join us as Pamela takes us through that moment of breath taking when having to cut our precious stash!

LECTURE SCHEDULE FOR 2007

February - Pamela Mostek: Beyond Slice and Dice. Ms. Mostek will talk with our guild about the FABRIC, the fabric that is just too beautiful to cut into small pieces. She has a technique we can all apply. Her lecture will show her "Focus of the Fabric" by fussy cutting and broderie perse applique.

March - Silent Auction - The night is dedicated to our guild members. Bring in 1, 2, or 5 items to be auctioned off and the proceeds will go to our guild for scholarships, materials for baby and wounded warrior quilts, and if we make enough, more for Breast Cancer Research. Remember the Sky is not the limit, but a way to soar higher! Plus it's Springtime and deep cleaning awaits us. Don't forget the Quilt Challenge!

April - Besty and "Around the Block Group". A Trunk show by Around the Block Friendship group promises to keep you laughing and entertained.

May - Rami Kim "Art to Wear" Trunk show will inspire us to sew wearable art. Ms. Kim is a DNA scientist who quilts, instructs and is an artist.

June - Installation of Officers and Pot Luck/Scholarship - The Mystery Quilt Challenge will be presented!

Thequiltshow.com

Thequiltshow.com is a new internet venue created by Ricky Tims and Alex Anderson. Starting April 2, 2007 there will be 13 episodes, approximately 45 minutes each in 2007. A Gold Star Package includes all of Series One and the episodes will post regularly between April-December. It is similar to the way a magazine comes once a month or so. We can't tell you specific topics (that information will be leaking out with The Daily Blog) but the video trailer currently viewable at our site indicates you a lot about the content and diversity. We'll target beginners - advance - intermediate. We'll target the seniors and younger quilters as well

WHAT A BULK BUY ENTAILS

A bulk buy has several different components to understand. First you need someone (purchaser) who has a resale number and is willing to hunt for the best price on a certain item (time is not reimbursed). Then, when that item has been found and the price is good-wholesale pricing- the person contacts the group to let them know the price per the unit , shipping and handling, and yes, sales tax.

In the past I have been the purchaser of Organ needles for commercial embroidery machines. There is always a lot of research to find the best price and trying to find the US distributor can be trying at times. I looked into trying to find the Schmetz distributor, However, their price point break was nonexistent so we all bought our own. A price break is where the distributor will lower a price because you bought more than a certain amount. With the needles The price break was at 1,000 and 5,000 needles.

I have spoken to several guild members who would like to be involved in a bulk buy. The bulk buy would be Warm and Natural. It retails at $13.50 a yard in the quilt shops. If there is enough interest I will contact the distributor. I will find out what it will take in order for us to get the best buy possible. Now in a bulk buy, there is no minimum per person. Some have said they would buy the roll. Some may only need a few yards. Please contact me with how much you would buy. I know you will want to know how much it will be before you commit. However, I need to know how much everyone is willing to buy so I can find the best price break for the group. So please contact me before our next meeting by emailing me-janicesteffen@roadrunner.com or send a letter I'm in the rooster
