A Desperate Housewife's Quilt Journey

In this humorous presentation, Sue shares 25 – 30 of her recent quilts, delighting the audience with stories that will make everyone giggle. Sue takes you through her development as a quiltmaker with her beautifully machine quilted and intricately pieced quilts. She discusses several quilts in detail: the importance of design elements, color, fabric choices, quilting patterns and the inspiration for her quilts.

Saturday - February 9, 2013 Work shop
Curved Paper Pieced Flying Geese

Level: Beg/Intermediate to advanced: confident in paper piecing. Students immediately move beyond the basic paper pieced geese by adding a dramatic twist to them and design a small quilt (18" x 24") with curved flying geese. Students will learn how to design, draw, measure, and sew the pattern in class. Sue will discuss in detail many of the options available for using curved flying geese as borders or central design elements. Sue shares many secret tricks to paper piecing. This class is fun! It will open up new horizons to curved paper foundation piecing.

President's Message—February 2013

Wow...2013 is here and we are now planning for our November 2013 Quilt Show. Sandy Scott and her Quilt Show Committee have done a wonderful job of getting us organized for the Quilt Show. It takes many hands to get the job done well. If you haven't already volunteered for a task at the Quilt Show, please take time to review the various options, and volunteer for a task that fits!

At our January meeting, Mary Tabar certainly gave us an opportunity to "expand our quilting techniques"...just imagine cutting up perfectly good fabric into small pieces, sewing it back together into a pleasing arrangement, and then bleaching portions of the fabric to achieve a new look...that's a different twist! Mary shared her beautiful quilts which reflected her unique photography and bleaching techniques. In addition her workshop was challenging, very relaxed and fun...Thanks Mary for sharing your creative talents with us!

I forgot to announce at our last meeting that the raffle for the Mongolian Quilt which was held at the December meeting generated $226 in income. Thanks to all of you who supported this raffle...first by donating the money to purchase the quilt and second by buying raffle tickets! A special thanks to Betty Hall for taking charge of selling the raffle tickets.

As your president, I am looking for input and ideas about how we can improve upon our meetings, programs, workshops, and other activities. I'd love to hear from you. If your Friendship Group would like to have me attend one of your meetings to hear your ideas please give me a call. The Executive Board is definitely open to incorporating "new" ways of doing things - this is your guild and we'd like to do whatever we can to insure that our activities meet the interests and needs of our members.

The time is approaching quickly when we will need to identify candidates for Executive Board, Committee Chairs, and Co-Chairs for 2013/2014. We will be forming a Nominating Committee soon so that we can get this important task completed. If you are interested in serving on the Nominating Committee, or in a specific capacity on the Board or a Committee please let me know.

Next month Sue Rasmussen will be our featured speaker and workshop leader. You may want to take a moment to look at her website www.suerasmussenquilts.com/ to see some of her beautiful quilts. Check out the unique ways she has incorporated Flying Geese into her quilts! Hope to see you at the February meeting!

Wishing You the Very Best for 2013 - Rosalie Mikelson

  2. The August Guild Meeting will be on the second Thursday, August 8th - workshop will be on August 10th.
  3. We will have no workshops in October and November.
  4. January 2014 Guild Meeting will be on the second Thursday, January 9th.

Be sure to mark these changes on your calendar....Also our Quilt Show is scheduled for the 2nd weekend in November - November 8th & 9th.

2. Decided to participate in the "California Guilds' Award-Winning Traditional Quilts" special exhibit at the 2013 International Quilt Festival/Long Beach.
3. Voted to revise the 2012-2013 Budget as follows:
  1. Increase expense budget for Legal Consultation to $5,000.
  2. Decrease budgeted income in 2012-2013 to $1,946.*

* Note that the original budgeted income for Opportunity Quilt ticket sales was $4200. The actual income from the sale of 2012-2013 Opportunity Quilt tickets is $3,465; Of this total, $1,519 was received prior to July 1, 2012 and therefore was posted as income to the 2011-2012 budget. The $1,946 is ticket sales income that was received on/or after July 1, 2012 and has been credited to the 2012-2013 budget.

This year our Guild has been presented with some unexpected challenges. Your Executive Board has decided to secure the services of an attorney who specializes in laws affecting non-profit organizations, as we must take steps to insure that our Guild is operating in a manner that is compliant with both State and Federal Laws. A copy of the revised budget is in this newsletter.

HOSPITALITY

Ladies,

Hope that your New Year is going well! The cold streak has certainly increased my pleasure at having hand quilting tasks to accomplish! Even an unfinished quilt is most satisfying to snuggle up with.

Thank you to the ‘rookies’ who gave us wonderful treats for our January meeting. Most of the group had never brought goodies before and I think they did quite well by us at that mini-feast! And, thank you to an additional few who just spontaneously brought in treats. (Of course we were all looking to rid ourselves of those extra-calorie dishes by offering them up to others!)

A great list of ‘veterans’ are signed up to bring dishes for February, so I’m sure we will continue the year being well provided for. (I’ll give you a call/email to remind you who you are!)

I was remiss in thanking the folks/groups that gave us prizes for our Table Decorating challenge in December. Please visit and thank—our very own Quilter’s Cottage for their generous donation, one of our local Mary Kay consultants, Margaret Leonelli (www.marykay.com/margaret/en-US/pages/default.aspx) - she lives on Stage coach right by the high school, and the lovely ladies/sisters—Tricia, Elisha and Gina at Bello Lei Salon located on Beech St.

I’ll be sending around blank pages at the meeting with your chance to sign up for the next few months. Please get your creative juices flowing for what tasty treats you might want to share.

Thanks to you all,        Susie and Jewell

Please help us with the 2013 Quilt Show: Quilted Treasures

At the January meeting, we showcased our plans for the next quilt show. If you missed that meeting or didn't get one of the handouts, the presentation and the 5-page list of the committees, are posted on our Fallbrook Quilt Guild website:

<http://www.fallbrookquiltguild.com/quilt-shows.html>

We are very excited about our next show. We still need many volunteers to help us make this the best show ever. Many of you have already volunteered to help---thank you. If you have not yet volunteered, please take a look at the list of committees to see where we still need help: <http://www.fallbrookquiltguild.com/documents/2013%20Volunteers.pdf> then contact Sandy Scott to sign up: (760) 723-5579 or email sandy.scott2010@gmail.com.

Lou Cobb also still needs a co-chair to help her with publicity. She will lead the way but needs a detail-oriented person to help her starting this month through September. You can reach her at (760) 689-5076 or louise.cobb@yahoo.com.
