President's Message—July 2013

I wish you a warm quilting greeting as we embark upon our 2013-2014 FQG year. I am so excited to be an integral part of this wonderful guild. I am honored and reticent, but with such an amazing group of women, it's going to be another great year.

Many of you know we are making progress on our non-profit status. Thanks to many hard working board members. We are just waiting for the State of California, (hope I'm still President when that happens). A special thanks to everyone who volunteered or who were heavily persuaded to become board members and committee chairs. Some members like, Sandy Scott, Sylvia Williams, and Jo Ann Russell took on more than one job. Thanks bunches!

My goal as your president it to continue to spread the joy and interest of quilting, increase our membership, and ensure our entire membership and guests feel included and appreciated. This is sometimes hard to do when we get locked into our routines, but I am confident we can do it. I welcome any suggestions and appreciate all of the support.

I love discovering new tools, techniques, and jargon associated with the quilting world. My latest discovery was "A fat quarter is not a part of the body".

I will not see you at the July meeting – But I'll see you in August. Until then Happy Quilting

Sharon

TEXTILE BOUTIQUE

Please finish and return items from kits.

There are still quite a few items not returned. Please try to finish them up and bring to the next meeting.

Use your creativity and make more items for the Boutique.

While we will continue to offer kits to make some items, we would love everyone to get creative and make items on your own to donate. We have received many creative items but more would be even better. A few suggestions include: needle cases, embroidered and appliquéd tea towels, aprons, Christmas ornaments, table toppers and candle mats. Let your creativity run wild.

We welcome Vintage Linens.

Several of the FQG members have donated lovely vintage linens hand-made by their families from generations past. We welcome vintage linens because they can either be used to embellish items we are already making or can be sold as is. Many people collect old lace doilies, dresser scarves, handkerchiefs with lace or embroidery, etc.

Do you need interfacing for the Cupcake Pincushions?

A few of the cupcake pincushion kits went out with non-fusible interfacing. You need fusible interfacing (it has a shiny side). If you received the wrong kind—please contact Lou at 760-728-6164 and she will provide you with the correct kind.

Thanks to everyone who donated materials and checked out kits! Also, thank you to those of you who have returned completed items and/or have attended the workshops. We appreciate everyone's generosity!

If you have any questions, please contact Lou Cobb at Louise.cobb@yahoo.com or Pam Wright at pam.psalm139@gmail.com

Quilts of Love... Connie Follstad and Floyce Royer

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Ten more fabulous quilts were turned in this month with many more in the works. That brings our total to 147. What a pleasure to have been a part of Quilts of Love this year and we look forward to the upcoming year with new committee members Cathy Carr and Dixie Johns. It was so much fun seeing all the creativity that is abundant in this guild. Those new little babies truly did get a "Quilt of Love" from each of you! Next year will be even better so save some time for a Quilt of Love. We will have more kits available each month with a workshop scheduled in January after the Quilt Show so mark your calendar now. Need something to do while sitting in your favorite vacation spot? Take along your finished baby quilt to bind. Thanks again for all your hard work and have a relaxing summer!

Thank you to the following for their June quilts:

Ann Harris (4) Way to go Ann!
Ann Turley (2) Anne Ondraka
Connie Follstad (about time I finished one)
Diane Rash Shirley Stegmuller

Pot Luck Fun!

Ladies!

Thank you so much for making our End of Year Pot Luck so wonderful! It was a lot of fun to talk and laugh with our own guild members and get to know a few of them a little better. It turned out that I wasn't the only one who didn't know how to make Yo-Yo's—so thanks Rosalie for your patient instruction!

We've had requests for several of the recipes! If you made a special treat, please bring the recipe and we will see that the fans get a copy!

A special thanks to those ladies who brought Pink Lemonade to give the kick to our party—Andy Hard, Linda Mussillami, JoAnn Rego and Irene Althaus!

Have a great summer and see you next month.
Susie and Jewell

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL'S DUE!!!

Ladies, please remember that your Guild Membership Renewal is DUE in July. You can also rejoin in August but we'd like to get most of you back on the roster in July. Please go to the website and get a copy of the membership form. (Christy developed a new one and it is simpler than ever!)

Bring the completed form and your check/cash to the table and we will be happy to take it from you!
Thanks,
Susie and JoAnne

Hope you'll give us a call for expert hand quilting & finishing. We have over 31 years of experience. Information from Sandy Scott

It's that time again –it's time for the: 2013 SAN DIEGO QUILT SHOW,
"SURFIN' THE USA!"

DATES & TIMES: September 5, 6, 7, 2013 (the weekend after Labor Day).

The show will be open on Thursday & Friday from 10 am – 6pm; and on Saturday from 10 am to 5 pm.

LOCATION: San Diego Convention Center, Hall F.

ADMISSION: 11 yrs and older - $10 unlimited admission (multiple days); 10 yrs and under – Free

PREVIEW NIGHT: Wednesday, September 4, 2013, from 6 pm – 9 pm.

Admission to the Preview Night will be $20 in advance; $25 at the door (if available).

Details on ticket purchase for this event will be posted on the SDSQ website

GUEST ARTIST: We are very excited to have Alex Anderson as our guest artist this year

QUILT ENTRY DEADLINE: July 1, 2013. Entry forms are now available on the SDQS website. Judging will be available again this year for a small fee. Prizes will be awarded in more than 10 categories.

NORTH COUNTY ART QUILTS: A special exhibit of art quilts from north county quilters is planned. If you want to be included, be sure to click on "NORTH COUNTY ART QUILTS" on the entry form drop-down menu. Our goal is to hang as many of these quilts together as possible.

DROP OFF LOCATIONS: This year we've arranged a drop-off point at Aretoy in Oceanside. See the entry form for dates and times.

QUILT CHALLENGE: Surfing the USA—it's not just about the water. Maximum size of 120" total around outside edges. Quilt front must have some red included in the challenge piece. Details on the SDQS website.

CLASSES: We have many, diverse classes to choose from in 2013, with well-known faculty. Classrooms are located on the upper level at the Convention Center. Class registration is now available online. With your class registration, you get free unlimited admission to the 3-day show and a tote bag filled with "goodies".

CALL FOR VOLUTEERS TO ASSIST AT THE SHOW: The San Diego Quilt Show is looking for volunteers to serve in a variety of capacities. For 2 hours of service, you will receive a complimentary day pass to the Quilt Show. See the website for more information: www.sandiegoquiltshow.com

SCHOLARSHIPS

Thank you ever so much for getting us closer to our goal of raising an additional $500 for our scholarship recipients. At our June meeting, our members generously contributed $338.

At the July guild meeting, we will get to meet and hear from two of our scholarship winners: Brooke Morrison and Cheyenne McCarthy. I know you'll enjoy seeing and getting to know a bit more about these two delightful young women.

Chloe Hall, granddaughter of Betty Hall, is the third scholarship applicant who we would like to award a second place scholarship of $500. She was graduated from Casa Grande High School, Petaluma, CA and will be attending University of Portland, pursuing a career path in nursing. Her essay touched the hearts and brought a smile to the faces of our scholarship committee. Chloe's writing piece was in response to the application that states:

Briefly tell about any connection you may have with quilts or the process of quilting.

Below is Chloe's essay. Take a moment to relax and read this heartwarming piece, and think about all the things you have done with the guild so that we can offer these scholarships, a worthy investment to the future generation.

I had my own quilt before I was born: my grandma sewed a deep navy blue quilt with golden moon and stars on it while my mom was pregnant. My childhood memories are wrapped up in the two white, sky blue, pastel yellow and light green bed quilts that she later made for me. Over the years, we have quilted together often; I learned how to sew sitting on my grandma's lap, and now I can sew all by myself and operate the pedal with my own foot as well. We have sewn many things together: bags, pillowcases, potholders, and stuffed animals, but most importantly a sienna and dark cyan lap quilt. We picked out the fabric at the Quilter's Cottage, cut and arranged it, and sewed it together. The most beautiful aspect of the quilt is not visible to the naked eye; the beauty is in the memories of the time we spent making it. A quilt's meaning is not stitched on it, but is hidden within it.

Now my grandma is making a very special quilt for me; it is composed of scallops that are deep blue with black and white. It is a tradition that each grandchild picks out the pattern for a quilt to be made by our grandma. My grandma has given me many quilts made with love. She has also passed on something that is intangible: one quilt, its patched together pieces the members of our family. This quilt is every quilt my grandma has made. Although the physical quilt may change over the years, the attributes, the connections to our family, will remain through the centuries.
