President's Message—November 2013

I have the greatest news! Ladies we're back in business! We have been given our non-profit status by the State of California and the IRS. The request to have the raffle was sent to the Department of Justice on October 11, 2014, so we should get the go ahead soon. Special thanks to Marie Sundsboe who served as the "Initial agent for service" and has worked to hard to ensure this was accomplished.

I went to the latest Southern California Council of Quilt Guild meeting. We were given lots of ideas for games. This December meeting should be a blast! Be sure to check the newsletter to get the latest updates for the last meeting of the calendar year.

The last Executive Board meeting was at Quilter's Cottage. Thank you Jan and Diane for being gracious hosts. We discussed several suggested changes in the bylaws. Don't panic, nothing is set in stone. During the January meeting we will have an open discussion and hold a vote by the general membership before any changes are made. Therefore your attendance is very important if you want to have any input in these issues. I will itemize all the suggestions in the December Newsletter so you have time to review them before the meeting. I'm sure more issues will arise between now and then, so I am going to wait so I have all suggestions.

The next Executive Board meeting will be at the "Grape Cafe" 119 N. Main Street in Fallbrook, at 10:00.AM on December 13. Because of the location we request that you RSVP to me, if you plan to attend.

A special welcome to our new members and guests. Thank you to all of that are volunteering to help at the Quilt Show, I saw lots of hands springing into action - that was wonderful.

If you missed the last meeting, the Guild received an award from California 67th District Assembly-woman Marie Waldron's office for 25 years of community service. We were honored that Jessie Lee, one of the founding members was there to participate. Nice work ladies!

Sorry I won't be at the show, I had this trip planned before I took office. I know it's gonna be great. Take lots of pictures and post them on our Facebook Page.

As the Holidays approach please keep one thing in mind. Money cannot buy happiness .. but it can buy fabric!

Happy Quilting

Ladies,

Please remember to wear your Fallbrook Quilt Guild NAME TAG to the show! Please do not make the ladies who are volunteering at the admissions desk have to be the 'bad cop' and make you pay because you did not wear your badge. They will NOT have a list of who had paid and who has not. The ONLY way that you get in FREE is to WEAR your name tag. Otherwise, YOU PAY!!!

We want everyone at the show to see how wonderful our members are and we want them to KNOW who you are by your name tag! So, please wear it proudly! This is a great event to attract new members. Please be welcoming to all the folks at the show and be sure to ask at least one person that you don't know if they might be interested in being a guest at a meeting! We'll have guest passes at the front desk. Thanks for helping to grow our Guild!

Remember, no Thursday evening meeting this month—enjoy the show and we'll get back together for the Pot Luck in December!

Susie and Jo Anne, Membership

Thanks to Fallbrook Merchants for Displaying Quilts in Store Windows During the Fall Faire!!

As part of publicity for the Quilt Show, we asked merchants on Main Street to display a few of the quilts we will auction at the show. These are merchants and organizations who kindly agreed to display auction quilts in their windows from Sept 30 to Oct 8:

Anna's Salon, Chamber of Commerce, Gem & Mineral Museum, Country Porch, Legacy Community Foundation, Mostly Windows, Labors of Love, Dominicks, Salon One, Murphy & Murphy, The Artery, Upscale Nails, Main Street Shoes, Classic Flooring, She She La, Broken Chair, and the Jewelry Connection.

We received many positive comments from visitors on Oct 6th as they strolled into and past our booth.

Next time you patronize one of these businesses, please let them know the Guild appreciates their support.

Quilt Show News

We're now counting down the days until our biennial quilt show. You should plan to deliver your quilts to JoAnn Rego on either of these two days:

- * Tuesday, November 5 between 3:00 PM and 6:00 PM, or
- * Wednesday, November 6 between noon and 4:00 PM.

If neither of these days work for you, please contact JoAnn direct to make separate arrangements. Please fold your quilts wrong side out, with the upper right corner (as you are looking at the back of the quilt) on top.

The big day for set-up is Thursday, November 7, 2013. Those of you working on various committees for that day should already know where and when you need to be at the church.

One change is that the Vendors will not have access to their space in the Chapel building until 12:30. All the other areas should be accessible by 8:00 AM. The pipe and drape framework should be completed by 10:00 AM so that quilts can be delivered and the hanging of quilts process can begin.

Please pay careful attention to the instructions given for Set-Up and Take-Down; things will be easier for everyone if you do so. On Saturday, quilts will not be released to you until after 5:00 PM and you MUST have your receipt with you.

Set-up should be complete by 4 or 5:00 PM. At that time the Photography committee can begin/continue taking photos of the quilts. The Camper Security folks will be there; they will enter the church with anyone wants to go in; I've been told that should not happen.

Please remember to WEAR YOUR NAMETAG on Friday and Saturday. You will have to pay the entry fee of $7.00 (or $6.00 if you have the $1.00 off coupon) if you are not wearing your name tag.

The show will be wonderful as always, and that is a tribute to all of you who submit quilts and who help on the committees. Thanks go to everyone who has participated.

HOSPITALITY

What a wonderful time we had at the last Quilt Guild meeting. There was so much fun and laughing, visiting and catching up, we loved it all! We are so grateful for all the terrific ladies that take the time out of their busy lives to bring refreshments to the meeting. It adds joy to the break (for those of you who love snacks, you know what we mean☺).

This month we would like to thank the following gals for the delicious spread for our October meeting: Linda Kacirek, Ann Turley, Shirley Fleming, Rosalie Mikelson, Linda Flynn, Donna Johnson and a special 'Thank you' to Marj Freda...as we left her out at the meeting ☺.

There will be no need for refreshments in November, as we will have our Quilt Show in place of the meeting. December will be our Pot Luck Christmas dinner and we will send a food breakdown in the next Newsletter. But...we only have 2 people signed up for January. We know that's a way away, but if you could think about bringing something in Jan., it would be great!

Thanks from your Hospitality Team:

Tina Rainey and Betsy Shirkey

QUILT GUILD HONORED FOR CONTRIBUTIONS OF TIME AND TALENT TO ARMED FORCES!

Jon Aasted, aide to California Legislature Assemblywoman, Marie Waldron, 67th Assembly District, presented the Fallbrook Quilt Guild with a Certificate of Recognition for outstanding community service in recognition of generous contributions of time and talent to our armed forces and sharing the love of quilting with the community for 25 years.

Sharon Baker, current president of the Guild, and Ann Turley, Second Vice President, accepted the award.

Jessie Lee, a charter member of the Fallbrook Quilt Guild, was also honored.

FQG PARTICIPATION IN FALL FAIRE WAS A BIG SUCCESS

The Fallbrook Fall Faire on Oct 6 was very successful for the Guild. We gained a lot of publicity for our Nov. Quilt Show through the display of auction quilts in Main Street merchant's windows. We also handed out hundreds of flyers to visitors to our booth in front of Labors of Love and our quilting demonstrations in the Art Studio on Alvarado. Many local merchants are also still offering the flyers in their stores.

Thanks to ALL of YOU who led these efforts and everyone who pitched in. It was truly a group effort!!

Also a BIG thanks to everyone who so generously donated handmade goods that we sold in the booth. Our sales totaled $741.00. The remainder of the goods will be in the Auction or the Boutique at the quilt show so it is a big win for the Guild.

SEE YOU AT THE SHOW!
